

Chambers Intern Services Agreement

This agreement entered into between _____ (“the intern”) and the U.S. Courts, District of Montana will commence _____ and will terminate _____. Under this agreement the intern agrees to perform services as a legal intern in the chambers of _____.

This agreement will NOT INCLUDE travel at the District's expense or liability.

Compensation for work performed under this agreement will be paid by the District at the rate of $15.00 per hour with a maximum of $3,600.00 paid. All payments due as an employer's contribution under Montana Worker's Compensation laws, under Federal Social Security laws or under applicable Federal or Montana laws will NOT BE PAID BY THE COURT. At the end of the calendar year, the District will issue an IRS 1099 form to the intern.

The District will pay in a timely fashion as determined by the preparation of a payment voucher by authorized officials in the designated office.

This agreement holds the District harmless against claims resulting in injury of death while performing work for the District, as well as to render the District harmless for actions of the worker while performing duties for the District.

Upon the exhaustion of the maximum compensation allowed under this agreement of $3,600.00, any additional services performed by the intern will be rendered solely as a volunteer, and the intern hereby waives any claim or right to receive salary or other compensation in consideration for the performance of duties assigned by the U.S. Courts, District of Montana.

The intern acknowledges that he/she is not entitled to receive civil service retirement credit or other related personnel benefits as a consequence of this voluntary employment, except that in the event of any personal injury incurred by the intern, he/she shall have those rights to compensation, if any, which may be provided by statute to persons rendering voluntary services to the United States. The intern further waives all right to any personal copyright privileges in any work product prepared by the intern in the course of his/her services to the U.S. Courts. Finally, the intern recognizes that information which he/she may obtain or have access to in the course of this experience may be of a confidential nature, and he/she agrees to preserve the confidentiality of such information.
