(a) Proof of service of process must be filed promptly and in any event before action is to be taken by the court or the parties. The proof must show the day and manner of service and may be by written acknowledgment of service, by certificate of the person who served process, or by any other proof satisfactory to the court.

(b) Failure to prove service as required by this rule does not affect the validity of service. The court may at any time allow the proof of service to be amended or supplied unless it clearly appears that to do so would result in material prejudice to the substantial rights of any party.

4.4 Service of Subpoenas by U.S. Marshals Service

Any party to a civil proceeding requesting service of a subpoena by the United States Marshals Service must provide notice to the Marshal of the request, along with all documentation necessary to effectuate service, no later than 30 days before the desired date of service. A lesser time period may be allowed only upon motion

4.5 Time Limit for Service

(a) For purposes of Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m), in any case where a plaintiff applies to proceed in forma pauperis and has not been denied, the time for service to be effected begins the day after entry of an order requiring service of the complaint. Unless the court orders otherwise, service must be accomplished within 90 days.

(b) In all other cases, service must be accomplished in accordance with the time limitations in Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m).

Civil Rule 5. Serving and Filing Pleadings and Papers

5.1 Filing with the Clerk

(a) Means of Filing. Except as otherwise provided by these rules, nothing may be filed with the court by means other than CM/ECF, mail directed to the clerk of court's address for postal service, or in person delivery to the clerk's office. A judge's acceptance of any paper for filing does not constitute agreement to accept any other paper for filing.

(b) Exhibits.

- (1) Identification. Exhibits must be identified and electronically filed so as to allow the court and the parties to locate easily and refer unambiguously to a specific page of a specific exhibit. Use of a short descriptive name in filing the exhibit, e.g., "Smith Aff." or "Range Rover Vehicle Registration," in the docket and in the text of the brief is required. In cases involving a large number of exhibits, a bookmarked PDF is allowable. Bookmarks within any such PDF must provide the exhibit number and a short description of the exhibit.
- (2) Excerpted Material. Excerpted material must be prominently identified as such.
- (3) Mandatory Electronic Filing of Trial/Hearing Exhibits. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, within ten days of the conclusion of a hearing or trial, a party must file in CM/ECF an electronic version of each documentary exhibit admitted into evidence.
- (4) Redaction. Before electronically filing exhibits, the filer must review each exhibit and redact any sensitive, confidential, or private information in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2, Fed. R. Crim. P. 49.1, the E-Government Act of 2002, and the Guide for Filing in the District of Montana or seek an order from the court either to seal the exhibit or to exempt the exhibit from electronic filing and service. Copies of any items filed under this rule shall also be served pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(b)(2) and Fed. R. Crim. P. 49 on any pro se parties.

- (5) Physical Exhibits. When a party offers or introduces physical exhibits into evidence, they must electronically file a photograph of that physical exhibit in accordance with subsection (b)(3) of this rule. The parties shall retain all such exhibits (or a representative sample in the case of narcotics and other contraband substances) during the pendency of the proceeding and any appeal, and, in a criminal case, shall retain the exhibit for an additional period of one year after the date on which the pertinent defendant's judgment of conviction becomes final. Nothing contained in this Local Rule shall prevent the court from entering an order with respect to the handling, custody, or storage of any exhibit.
- (6) Digital Exhibits not Supported by CM/ECF. Electronic records in a format not supported by CM/ECF (e.g., audio files, video files, etc.) must be physically submitted to the clerk's office in the division of venue on a DVD, CD, or a USB drive with a notice of filing. The clerk's office shall upload all such exhibits to a server maintained by the clerk's office and the docket shall reflect their location. The DVDs, CDs, and/or USBs will not be returned and will not be maintained by the clerk's office.
- (7) Voluminous Documents. If the size of a document (such as an administrative record) exceeds the filing parameters set forth in the Guide for Filing in the District of Montana, the filing party may physically submit the filing to the clerk's office in the division of venue on a DVD, CD, or USB drive with a notice of filing explaining why the filing cannot be done in CM/ECF. The clerk's office shall file the notice of filing in CM/ECF, upload the voluminous documents to a server maintained by the clerk's office, and have the docket reflect their location. The DVDs, CD, and/or USBs will not be returned and will not be maintained by the clerk's office.
- (8) Courtesy Copies. Counsel shall not deliver extra copies of filings to a judge's chambers except when requested. When requested, the courtesy copies shall be delivered to the divisional office where the judge's chambers is located. Copies of exhibits provided to the clerk's office and chambers pursuant to court scheduling orders are considered courtesy copies and will be destroyed unless the filing party makes a request for their return within ten days of the conclusion of the trial or hearing.

5.2 Filing Under Seal

(a) Good Faith. In addition to the certifications set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 11(b), any person who files a document or item under seal, with or without prior leave, certifies that sealing is appropriate to the best of the person's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances and with due regard to the public's right of access and L.R. 1.3(a)(2).

(b) When Motion for Leave Required. A motion for leave to file under seal is required unless the case is sealed or unless:

- (1) a protective order is sought under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c) and L.R. 26.4;
- (2) a party is submitting documents for in camera review; or
- (3) filing under seal is otherwise preauthorized by state or federal law or an order already entered in the case.

(c) Caption. Any document preauthorized to be filed under seal must include the phrase "FILED UNDER SEAL" in the case caption, followed by citation to the authority for sealing, e.g., "Per Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(e)(2)(B)," or "D. Mont. L.R. 5.1(b)(1), 26.4."

(d) Contents of Motion for Leave. A motion for leave to file under seal must:

- (1) be filed in the public record of the case;
- (2) without disclosing confidential information, describe the document or item to be sealed and explain why inclusion in the public record is not appropriate; and
- (3) either:
 - (A) state why it is not feasible to file a redacted version of the document or item in the public record, or
 - (B) be accompanied by a redacted version of the document or item filed in the public record.

(e) Electronic Filing. Following the directions of the clerk’s office, attorneys filing electronically must lodge under seal the document or item for which leave to seal is sought. Unless ex parte filing is authorized, the filing party must serve the sealed documents on all other parties.

(f) Nonelectronic Filing. Persons not filing electronically must submit to the clerk:

- (1) the document or item to be sealed, placed in an envelope with the case number, date, and “Filing Under Seal Requested” clearly printed on the envelope; and,
- (2) if required, the motion for leave to seal and brief in support.

(g) Response and Order.

- (1) The court may rule on a motion for leave to seal without awaiting a response.
- (2) If leave to file under seal is granted, the document or item will be deemed filed under seal, and the party need not refile the document.
- (3) The court may order that a document be redacted for the public record. Until the filing party complies, the unredacted document will not be deemed filed.
- (4) If leave to file under seal is denied, the document or item will remain in the record under seal but will be deemed not filed.

(h) Highly Sensitive Documents (HSDs). A Highly Sensitive Document (HSD) is a document or other material that contains sensitive, but unclassified, information that warrants exceptional handling and storage procedures to prevent significant consequences that could result if such information were obtained or disclosed in an unauthorized way. A document is an HSD if its subject matter renders it of potential value to malicious nation-state actors seeking to harm the interests of the United States. Factors to be considered in making the determination include whether the document involves matters of national security; foreign sovereign interests; cybersecurity; intellectual property or trade secrets; terrorism; public officials; or the reputational interests of the United States.

- (1) In order to have a document filed as an HSD, a party must submit to the clerk's office for filing a motion to treat a document as an HSD, the HSD sought to be filed, and a certificate of service. The required documents shall be submitted nonelectronically to the clerk's office in a sealed envelope marked "HIGHLY SENSITIVE DOCUMENT."
- (2) Upon receipt, the clerk's office will make an informational entry on the case docket indicating that an HSD motion was received and delivered to chambers.
- (3) The court will issue an order on the motion and, if granted, an informational entry will be made on the case docket indicating that the HSD has been filed with the court. The clerk's office will maintain the HSD in a secure format outside CM/ECF. If the motion is denied, the filing party is responsible for filing the document under existing procedures set forth in these rules.

5.3 Addresses for Service

(a) Address Changes.

- (1) Attorneys must update any change in name, e-mail, mailing address, law firm affiliation, and/or telephone number through their PACER accounts.
- (2) A self-represented party filing non-electronically whose e-mail, post office box or physical mailing address changes while an action is pending must promptly file with the court and serve upon all other parties a Notice of Change of Address specifying the new address for service.
- (3) A self-represented party filing electronically must update any change in name, e-mail, mailing address, law firm affiliation, and/or telephone number through their PACER account.

(b) Dismissal Due to Failure to Notify. The court may dismiss a complaint without prejudice or strike an answer when:

- (1) a document directed to the attorney or self-represented party by the court has been returned to the court as not deliverable; and

- (2) the court fails to receive within 60 days of this return a written communication from the attorney or self-represented party indicating a current address for service.

5.4 Emergency Filings Withdrawn December 2023

Civil Rule 7. Motions and Other Papers

7.1-1 Notice of Additional Interested Parties

(a) Counsel for all non-governmental parties must file with their first appearance a Notice of Interested Parties, which

(1) lists ~~must list~~ all persons, associations of persons, firms, partnerships, and corporations (including parent corporations, clearly identified as such), other than the parties and their immediate families, that may have a financial interest in the outcome of the proceeding, including any insurance carrier that may be liable in whole or in part (directly or indirectly) for a judgment in the action or for the cost of defense; or

(2) states that there are no such persons, associations of persons, firms, partnerships, or corporations.

(b) A corporate party may include in the Notice filed under this L.R. 7.1-1 any disclosures required under Fed.R.Civ.P. 7.1; if this information is included in the corporation's Notice of Interested Parties, the corporation is not required to file a separate Disclosure Statement under Fed.R.Civ.P. 7.1.

(c) All parties have a continuing duty to supplement this Notice.

(d) For purposes of this Rule, the terms “proceeding” and “financial interest” shall have the meaning assigned by 28 U.S.C. § 455 (d)(1), (3) and (4), respectively.

7.1 Motions

(a) Scope. Except for pleadings under Fed. R. Civ. P. 7(a), pleadings in proceedings under 28 U.S.C. §§ 2241, 2254, or 2255, or applications for a temporary restraining order, Rules 7.1 and 7.2 apply to all written requests that the court take or refrain from taking a particular action, except where another rule provides otherwise.

(b) Timeliness. All motions must be made sufficiently in advance of trial to comply with the time periods set forth in this rule or other order of the court and to avoid any delays in the trial.

(c) Prerequisites to Filing a Motion.

- (1) The text of a non-dispositive motion must state that other parties have been contacted and state whether any party objects to the motion. Parties that have not yet appeared in the action or whose default has been entered need not be contacted. This requirement does not apply to any party in a case filed by a self-represented prisoner.
- (2) When a motion is unopposed, the word “unopposed” must appear in the title of the motion.
- (3) Except as otherwise provided in these rules or by order, a proposed order is required and permitted only with a motion for extension of time or with an unopposed motion. All proposed orders must:
 - (A) be attached to the motion in PDF format as an exhibit, so that the order, as proposed, is filed in the electronic record of the case;
 - (B) be e-mailed to the presiding judge in Word format so the judge may alter it;
 - (C) use 14-point font;
 - (D) omit macros or special coding or formatting other than appropriate citation format;
 - (E) be e-mailed only to the presiding judge’s address for proposed orders; for example, a judge whose initials are XYZ would have an e-mail address of xyz_propord@mtd.uscourts.gov; and
 - (F) be identified in the subject line of the e-mail by the first plaintiff’s last name, the case number, and an abbreviated description of the document and the moving party, for example, Smith CV 03-289-GF p-ord gr def ext time.
- (4) Failure to comply with this rule may result in summary denial of the motion. Denial must be without prejudice on the first occasion and the filer must be given an opportunity to refile the motion.

(d) Briefs.

(1) Briefing Schedule.

- (A) A motion, if opposed, must be accompanied by a brief in support filed at the same time as the motion. Briefs in support of a motion must be filed separately from the motion. Failure to timely file a brief will result in denial of the motion, subject to refile in compliance with the rule.
- (B) Responses.
 - (i) Responses to motions to dismiss, for judgment on the pleadings, or for summary judgment must be filed within 21 days after the motion was entered in the docket.
 - (ii) Responses to all other motions must be filed within 14 days after the motion was entered in the docket. As to these motions, except where a pro se litigant files a motion for the appointment of counsel, failure to file a response brief may be deemed an admission that the motion is well-taken.
- (C) The moving party may file a reply within 14 days after the response was entered in the docket.
- (D) No further briefing is permitted without prior leave. A motion is deemed ripe for ruling at the close of the time for response, unless otherwise indicated in the scheduling order.

(2) Length of Briefs.

- (A) Briefs in support of a motion and response briefs are limited to 6500 words.
- (B) Reply briefs are limited to 3250 words.

- (C) Any brief of 4000 words or more must include a Table of Contents, Table of Authorities, and Exhibit Index.
- (D) Filing serial motions to avoid word limits may result in denial of all such motions.
- (E) Briefs must include a certificate of compliance with this rule stating the number of words in the brief, excluding caption, certificate of compliance, table of contents and authorities, exhibit index, and any certificate of service. An attorney may rely on the word count of a word-processing system used to prepare the brief.

(e) Argument. The court may hear argument on the record in open court, by video conference, or by telephone conference call. The court must ensure that each party's statements to the court are audible to all other participants.

7.2 Motion Exhibits

~~—— (a) Exhibits must be identified and electronically filed so as to allow the court, the parties, and the public to locate easily and refer unambiguously to a specific page of a specific exhibit. See L.R. 5.1. Use of a short descriptive name in filing the exhibit, e.g., “Smith Aff.” or “Range Rover Vehicle Registration,” in the docket and in the text of the brief is required. In cases involving a large number of exhibits, a bookmarked PDF is allowable. Bookmarks within any such PDF must provide the exhibit number and a short description of the exhibit.~~

~~—— (b) All motion exhibits must comply with the provisions set forth in L.R.5.1(b).~~ Only exhibits that are directly germane to the matter under consideration by the court may be filed.

~~—— (c) Excerpted material must be prominently identified as such.~~

7.3 Motion for Reconsideration

(a) Leave of Court Required. No one may file a motion for reconsideration of an interlocutory order without prior leave of court.

(b) Form and Content of Motion for Leave. A motion for leave to file a motion for reconsideration may seek reconsideration only of an interlocutory order, must be limited to 2,275 words or, for pro se litigants, seven pages, and must specify why it meets at least one of the following:

- (1) (A) the facts or applicable law are materially different from the facts or applicable law that the parties presented to the court before entry of the order for which reconsideration is sought, and
(B) despite the exercise of reasonable diligence, the party applying for reconsideration did not know such fact or law before entry of the order; or
- (2) new material facts arose or a change of law occurred after entry of the order.

(c) Prohibition Against Repetition of Argument. No motion for leave to file a motion for reconsideration of an interlocutory order may repeat any oral or written argument made by the applying party before entry of the order. Violation of this restriction subjects the offending party to appropriate sanctions.

(d) Response. Unless the presiding judge orders a response, no response may be filed to a motion for leave to file a motion for seeking reconsideration of an interlocutory order.

7.4 Notice of Supplemental Authority

If pertinent and significant authority comes to a party's notice after the briefs have been filed but before decision, a party may promptly advise the court by notice setting forth the citations and stating the reason the authority was not cited in the party's brief. The notice must specifically refer either to a page of the brief(s) already filed or to a point argued orally. The notice may not exceed two pages and must not present a new argument. No response may be filed unless the presiding judge so authorizes.

7.5 Amicus Brief

(a) Who May File. No one may file an amicus brief without prior leave of court.

(b) Motion for Leave.

- (1) A motion for leave to file an amicus brief must be served on each party and submitted to the clerk by mail or personal delivery. The motion may not be accompanied by a brief.
- (2) The motion must:
 - (A) comply with L.R. 7.1(b) and (c) and be limited to 3250 words;
 - (B) include, if the amicus is a corporation, a disclosure statement like that required of parties by Fed. R. Civ. P. 7.1(a) and/or a notice of interested parties as required by LR 7.1-1;
 - (C) state why the amicus is interested in the matter; and
 - (D) state why an amicus brief is desirable and relevant, including why the parties cannot adequately address the matter.
- (3) Parties to the case may respond to the motion within 14 days of its entry by the clerk. Responses must be limited to 3250 words and must comply with L.R. 7.1(d)(2)(E). There shall be no further briefing.

(c) Leave to File. If leave is granted, the amicus must file the brief and any other submissions electronically.

Civil Rule 11. Signing Pleadings, Motions, and Papers

11.1 Signatures in Electronic Filings

(a) A registered user's log-in and password serve as the user's signature on all documents electronically filed with the court and as a signature for purposes of Fed. R. Civ. P. 11, these rules, and any other purpose for which a signature is required in connection with proceedings before the court.

(b) Except as provided by L.R. 11.2, where a hand signature would otherwise appear, each document filed electronically by a registered user must be signed with the filing attorney's name, e.g., "/s/ John E. Attorney," a digital stamp, or a scanned handwritten signature.

(c) A registered user must not knowingly permit or cause his or her log-in and password to be used by anyone other than an authorized agent of the registered user. If a registered user has reason to suspect that the security of his or her log-in and password have been compromised, the clerk must be contacted immediately.

11.2 Jointly Filed Documents; Multiple Signatures

Documents requiring signatures of more than one party may be filed in one of the following ways:

(a) Where the filing party is a registered user and all signers (including non-registered users and pro se litigants) consent to the filing, by using the "/s/" electronic signature as to all parties;

(b) Where all signers use hand signatures, by scanning the document and filing it electronically without the "/s/" signature by any party;

(c) By scanning one or more identical documents with hand signatures and attaching each document as an exhibit to a document bearing the registered user's "/s/" electronic signature; or

(d) By using any other method prescribed by the clerk of court.

Civil Rule 12. Defenses and Objections

12.1 Responding to Prisoner-Plaintiffs – Waiver of Reply

(a) Definition of “Prisoner-Plaintiff.” Regardless of whether the person is represented by counsel or appears pro se, any plaintiff who is incarcerated or detained in any facility, and who is accused of, convicted of, sentenced for, or adjudicated delinquent for, violations of criminal law or the terms and conditions of parole, probation, pretrial release, or diversionary program, is a “prisoner-plaintiff” within the meaning of this rule, provided the person is so incarcerated or detained on the date of service of the complaint.

(b) Waiver of Reply Not Appropriate. As to all plaintiffs not described by the terms of subsection (a), this rule does not apply and the defendant must timely file an answer or other appropriate motion, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 8 and 12.

(c) Timely Filing of Waiver of Reply; Defenses Preserved. When a prisoner-plaintiff serves the complaint before the court has ordered either service or a response to the complaint, any defendant may file a waiver of reply, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(g), within the time set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(a) or 81(c)(2), in lieu of an answer or other appropriate motion. Timely filing of a waiver of reply preserves the defendant’s ability to raise all defenses set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 12 in a subsequent answer or motion, pursuant to the terms of that rule.

(d) Entry of Default and Default Judgment. Failure to timely file a waiver of reply, an answer, or other appropriate motion in response to a complaint by a prisoner-plaintiff may result in entry of default and default judgment pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 55. Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b)(2), default judgment may be granted against a defendant who has filed a waiver of reply but fails to file an answer or other appropriate motion when ordered to do so.

(e) Findings Implicit in Court’s Order for Service or Response. Regardless of whether the order so states, the court’s ordering of service or of a response to the complaint is deemed a finding that the plaintiff has a reasonable opportunity to prevail on the merits, within the meaning of 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(g)(2), and that the complaint is not, on its face, frivolous or malicious, and that it does not seek solely monetary relief against a defendant who is immune from such relief, all within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915(e)(2)(B) and 1915A(b). If the court has ordered service, or if the court has ordered a response to the complaint, filing of a waiver of reply in lieu of an answer or other appropriate motion is not permitted and may result in the entry of default and/or default judgment.

12.2 Notice of Appearance – In Forma Pauperis Case

In all cases proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 1915, the defendant or respondent must file a notice of appearance at the time the first document, other than a return of the waiver of service of summons, is filed.

12.3 Commissioner's Answer in Social Security Case

The certified administrative record shall serve as the Commissioner's Answer in a case filed solely under 42 U.S.C. § 405(g). The case will proceed under L.R. 78.2.

Civil Rule 15. Amended and Supplemental Pleadings

15.1 Motion for Leave to Amend or Supplement

When a party moves for leave to amend or supplement a pleading, the proposed pleading must be attached to the motion as an exhibit. If leave is granted, the party must promptly file the pleading.

Civil Rule 16. Pretrial Conferences; Scheduling; Management

16.1 Pretrial Conferences; General Rules

(a) Authority and Attendance. At any pretrial conference, an attorney must have authority to enter into stipulations and to make admissions regarding all matters the parties may reasonably anticipate discussing. Lead trial counsel must attend the preliminary and final pretrial conferences in person and may be required to attend any other conference or hearing in person.

(b) Other Matters Pending. All conferences will proceed as scheduled regardless of whether motions are pending or alternative dispute resolution is being pursued.

(c) Status Conferences. Status conferences may be held in any case as deemed necessary by the court or on motion of a party explaining the need for a conference.

16.2 Preliminary Pretrial Conference

(a) Exempt Cases. Unless the court orders otherwise, this rule does not apply to proceedings described in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(B).

(b) Filings Before Preliminary Pretrial Conference. Each of the following documents must be filed no later than seven days before the preliminary pretrial conference:

- (1) Preliminary Pretrial Statement. A statement must be filed by each party and must include:
 - (A) a brief factual outline of the case;
 - (B) the basis for federal jurisdiction and for venue in the division;
 - (C) the factual basis of each claim or defense advanced by the party;
 - (D) the legal theory underlying each claim or defense, including, where necessary to a reasonable understanding of the claim or defense, citations to authority;

- (E) a computation of damages;
- (F) the pendency or disposition of any related state or federal litigation;
- (G) proposed additional stipulations of fact not included in the Statement of Stipulated Facts, see L.R. 16.2(b)(3), and the parties' understanding as to what law applies;
- (H) proposed deadlines relating to joinder of parties or amendment of the pleadings;
- (I) identification of controlling issues of law suitable for pretrial disposition;
- (J) the name and city and state of current residence of each individual known or believed to have information that may be used in proving or denying any party's claims or defenses, and a summary of that information. If known, the address and telephone number of the individual must be provided to all counsel on request;
- (K) the substance of any insurance agreement that may cover any resulting judgment;
- (L) the status of any settlement discussions and prospects for compromise of the case; and
- (M) suitability of special procedures.

(2) Discovery Plan.

- (A) In addition to the matters set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f), the parties must identify likely areas of expert testimony.
- (B) Plaintiff must file on behalf of all parties the discovery plan resulting from the Rule 26(f) conference.

- (3) Statement of Stipulated Facts. Plaintiff must separately file a Statement of Stipulated Facts to which all parties agree.

16.3 Scheduling

(a) Scheduling Order.

- (1) After discussing the Pretrial Statements and Joint Discovery Plan with the parties, the presiding judge will issue a scheduling order.
- (2) In exempt cases, unless a dispositive motion is filed, the court will, within 45 days after the case is at issue, establish a schedule for final disposition.
- (3) Unless the last deadline in a scheduling order sets a conference or a trial date, it must require the parties to file a joint notice stating the matter is ready for trial or further scheduling.

(b) Continuances.

- (1) Requests for continuances of trial will not be routinely granted.

Parties must prepare diligently for trial and are discouraged, absent extraordinary circumstances and good cause shown, from seeking continuance of a trial. In granting a motion for continuance, the court may impose costs and conditions.

- (2) Unavailability of a Witness or Evidence.
 - (A) A motion to postpone or continue trial based on the unavailability of a witness or evidence must be supported by an affidavit showing:
 - (i) the nature and materiality of the testimony or evidence;
 - (ii) the moving party's efforts to secure the testimony or evidence on time; and
 - (iii) compelling reason to believe the witness or evidence will be available if a postponement or continuance is granted.

- (B) If the opposing party stipulates to the admissibility and content of the testimony or evidence sought, trial will not be postponed or continued unless trial without it would be unjust to the moving party.

(c) Jury Cost Assessment in Final Week Before Trial. When a civil action scheduled for jury trial is settled or otherwise disposed of less than seven days before trial, all jury costs, Marshal fees, mileage, and per diem may be assessed as directed by the court.

16.4 Final Pretrial Order

(a) Parties' Planning Conference. At least 14 days before the proposed final pretrial order is due, the plaintiff must convene a conference of all counsel and self-represented parties at a suitable time and place to prepare the proposed final pretrial order. If a party fails to cooperate in the conference or in preparation of the order, another party may move the court for sanctions.

(b) Prerequisites. Before filing the proposed final pretrial order, the parties must:

- (1) Exchange Exhibits. Exchange copies of all items expected to be offered as exhibits, and all schedules, summaries, diagrams, charts, etc., to be used but not offered at trial. Impeachment or rebuttal exhibits need not be exchanged. Items must be premarked for identification. A party must make the original or the underlying documents of any proposed exhibit available for inspection on request.
- (2) Designate Deposition Excerpts. Serve statements designating excerpts from depositions proposed to be offered at trial, other than for impeachment and rebuttal. Statements must specify witness, page numbers, and line numbers.
- (3) Provide Deposition Summaries. Serve a copy of any summary of deposition testimony a party proposes to offer at trial, provided the parties have stipulated to a summary in lieu of reading a deposition.

- (4) Confer and Stipulate. Attempt to resolve objections to witnesses, proposed exhibits, and designations and summaries of deposition testimony. Counsel must stipulate to the admissibility of as many exhibits as is practical and consistent with preserving legitimate objections.
- (5) Specify Outstanding Evidentiary Objections. Specify unresolved objections in writing on the opposing party's witness and exhibit lists. Objections not shown on the lists will be deemed waived.

(c) Contents of the Order. As shown in Appendix Form D, the proposed final pretrial order must address the following matters:

- (2) Jurisdiction and Venue. The statutory basis of federal jurisdiction and factual basis supporting jurisdiction and venue in the District of Montana.

16.5 Alternative Dispute Resolution

(a) Mediation and Evaluation.

- (1) Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 651 et seq., the court encourages mediation and neutral evaluation as alternative dispute resolution (“ADR”) procedures. Parties must consider using ADR procedures at an appropriate point in the litigation. Parties may engage in ADR with or without the assistance of the court.
 - (A) Mediation is a non-binding process in which an impartial third party assists the parties in reaching an agreed settlement. A settlement conference is mediation conducted by a judicial officer. A mediator may confer separately and privately with any party during a session.
 - (B) Neutral evaluation is a non-binding process in which the parties present summaries of their cases to an evaluator, who assesses the parties' legal positions and provides them with an impartial evaluation of the case. The evaluator may help the parties identify areas of agreement, provide case planning guidance, and assist in negotiating a settlement.

- (2) The chief deputy clerk of court must annually prepare a statement for the Chief Judge regarding the District's use of ADR procedures.

(b) General Rules.

- (1) Case Management Responsibility. The presiding judge retains case management responsibility at all times. Where a case is referred to a magistrate judge for all pretrial proceedings, the magistrate judge is the presiding judge.
- (2) Confidentiality. All settlement proceedings are confidential. Attorneys, participants, mediators, and evaluators must preserve the confidentiality of all communications made in the course of ADR procedures.
- (3) Mediators and Evaluators. All persons serving as mediators or evaluators under this rule are performing quasi-judicial functions and are entitled to the immunities and protections accorded by law to persons serving in such capacity.
- (4) Obligation of Good Faith.
 - (A) Each party must ensure that a person with ultimate settlement authority attends and participates in any ADR procedure ordered by the presiding judge. A unit or agency of government satisfies this attendance requirement if represented by a person who has, to the greatest extent feasible, authority to settle and who is knowledgeable about the facts of the case, the governmental unit's position, and the procedures and policies under which the governmental unit decides whether to accept proposed settlements.
 - (B) Failure to participate in good faith may result in the imposition of sanctions against the offending party.

- (5) Notification of Settlement. When a case is settled, the parties must immediately notify the court by filing a notice in the case.

(c) Motions and Orders for ADR.

- (1) The presiding judge may, sua sponte or on the motion of a party, order the parties to participate in mediation or neutral evaluation.
- (2) The presiding judge will select the mediator or evaluator and may select any person not involved in the case.
- (3) The presiding judge or a judicial mediator or evaluator may issue appropriate orders to govern the proceedings. A non-judicial mediator or evaluator may set forth the governing procedures in a letter to the parties. Such letters will not be filed in the record of the case.

(c) Bond. Before receiving money or property on the ward's behalf, a guardian must post a bond in an amount fixed by the presiding judge.

Civil Rule 24. Intervention

 - (A) the motion;
 - (B) a brief in support that complies with L.R. 7.1(c) and (d), states whether leave is sought under Fed. R. Civ. P. 24(a) or (b), and states the grounds for intervention;

 - (D) if the prospective intervenor is a corporation, a disclosure statement pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 7.1(a); and
 - (E) if counsel is not a member of the bar of this District, a complete application for leave to appear pro hac vice under L.R. 83.1(d).
- (2) An incomplete motion to intervene may be stricken or denied.

Civil Rule 26. Discovery

26.1 Rule 26(f) Conference and Discovery Plan

(a) Except in cases exempted by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(B), or unless otherwise directed, the parties must confer at least 21 days before the preliminary pretrial conference to consider the matters set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f) and to prepare the Statement of Stipulated Facts, see L.R. 16.2(b)(3), to be filed before the preliminary pretrial conference.

(b) Each party must serve initial disclosures conforming with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A) no more than 14 days after the Rule 26(f) conference. The parties are encouraged to serve initial disclosures at least seven days before the Rule 26(f) conference.

(c) Initial disclosures may not be filed.

(d) In actions brought without counsel, no party may begin discovery until a scheduling order has been issued.

26.2 Documents of Discovery

(a) Filing Prohibited. Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(d)(1), initial disclosures under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A), depositions, interrogatories, requests for documents, requests for admissions, answers, responses, and objections, expert disclosures, expert reports, notices of deposition, notices of service of subpoena, and certificates or notices indicating service of discovery documents on opposing parties are not routinely filed.

(b) Filing Required. Regardless of subsection (a), when any motion is filed relating to discovery, the party filing the motion must attach as exhibits to the motion all documents relevant to the motion if the documents have not been previously filed. Any such discovery filed including depositions should be properly redacted to comply with Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2. Public access to such discovery will not be restricted unless filed under seal pursuant to Local Rule 5.2.

(c) Other Motions. Discovery responses or admissions relied on as evidence relevant to another type of motion, such as summary judgment, are considered exhibits rather than discovery documents and are not governed by this rule.

(d) Expert Disclosures. At trial, reports by retained experts and disclosures of testifying non-retained experts must be available for review by the court.

26.3 Discovery Responses and Motions

(a) Responses to Discovery.

- (1) Answers and objections to interrogatories pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 33 and responses and objections to requests for admissions pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 36 must identify and quote each interrogatory or request for admission in full immediately preceding the statement of any answer or objection.
- (2) Each objection must be followed by a statement of reasons. When an objection is made to part of an interrogatory, the remainder of the interrogatory must be answered at the time the objection is made, or within the period of any extension of time to answer, whichever is later.
- (3) Responses to requests made pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a) must set forth each request in full before each response or objection. Each objection must be followed by a statement of reasons.
- (4) Failure to object to interrogatories or requests for the production of documents or things under Fed. R. Civ. P. 33 and 34, within the time fixed by the rules, or within the time to which the parties have agreed, constitutes a waiver of any objection.
- (5) The parties, and when appropriate a non-party witness, may stipulate to alter any form or procedure for discovery or any time limit for discovery that does not extend the dates set for the close of discovery, the motions deadline, lodging the pretrial order, pretrial conferences, or trial of the case. The court will not enforce oral stipulations.

(b) Demand for Prior Discovery. Whenever a party makes a written demand for discovery that took place prior to the time the party became a party to the action, each party who has previously provided responses to interrogatories or requests for admission or requests for production must furnish to the demanding party, at the demanding party's expense, a copy of the documents containing the discovery responses in question. Alternatively, each responding party must furnish to the demanding party a list identifying each responsive discovery document by title and, upon further demand and at the demanding party's expense, a copy of any listed discovery response specified in the demand. In the case of requests for production of things, the responding party must make available for inspection by the demanding party all things previously produced. Each party who has taken a deposition must advise the demanding party of the availability of a copy of the transcript at the latter's expense by providing the name, address and telephone number of the certified court reporter who prepared the deposition transcript.

(c) Discovery Motions.

- (1) The court will deny any discovery motion unless the parties have conferred concerning all disputed issues before the motion is filed. The mere sending of a written, electronic, or voicemail communication does not satisfy this requirement. Rather, this requirement can be satisfied only through direct dialogue and discussion in a face-to-face meeting (whether in person or by electronic means), in a telephone conversation, or in detailed, comprehensive correspondence.
- (2) All motions to compel or limit discovery must:
 - (A) set forth the basis for the motion;
 - (B) certify that the parties complied with subsection (c)(1) or a description of the moving party's attempts to comply; and
 - (C) attach, as an exhibit:
 - (i) the full text of the discovery sought; and
 - (ii) the full text of the response.

(d) Original Discovery. Originals of responses to requests for admission or production and answers to interrogatories must be served upon the party who made the request or propounded the interrogatories, and that party must make such originals available for use by any other party at the time of any pretrial hearing or at trial. Likewise, the deposing party must make the original transcript of a deposition available for use by any party at the time of any pretrial hearing and at trial, or for filing with the court if so ordered.

26.4 Protective Orders

(a) Motion for Order or Review. When a person or party seeks a protective order under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c) and submits documents or items for in camera review:

- (1) the documents or items sought to be protected may be filed under seal, ~~following L.R. 5.1(b)(1) and (c),~~ without prior leave of court pursuant to LR 5.2(b)(1);
- (2) the motion for protective order or in camera review and brief in support must be filed in the public record and must describe the nature of the documents or items in a manner that, without revealing information sought to be protected, enables an assessment of the propriety of a protective order; and
- (3) the party may also file under seal a more detailed supplemental brief in support of the motion for protective order.

(b) Filing Documents ~~That Are~~ Subject to a Protective Order.

- (1) Sealing Not Available. Documents constituting or containing information subject to a protective order may, if filed in the court's record, be redacted but may not be filed under seal.
- (2) Motion for Leave to Redact. Prior to filing a redacted version of a document constituting or containing information subject to a protective order, the filing party must:
 - (A) show that the public interest in open judicial records is outweighed by a compelling reason based on specified facts; or
 - (B) if the document is filed in connection with a motion concerning case management or trial management, make a particularized showing under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c)(1) that good cause supports redaction.

Civil Rule 38. Jury Trial

38.1 Demand for Jury Trial

When a demand for a jury trial is incorporated in a pleading, the title of the pleading must so indicate.

38.2 Matter in Bankruptcy

Bankruptcy judges are specially designated to conduct jury trials with the express written consent of all parties.

Civil Rule 47. Selecting Jurors

47.1 Examining Jurors

(a) Confidentiality of Juror Information. Other than use at trial, any disclosure of juror information must be limited to parties and counsel involved in the case and persons consulted about the composition of the jury. Those persons must take reasonable steps to protect the confidentiality of the information.

(b) Juror Questionnaires. Case specific juror questionnaires may be allowed at the discretion of the presiding judge and under such terms and conditions as ordered by the presiding judge.

(c) Voir Dire. The court will conduct voir dire unless it orders otherwise. The court may permit limited voir dire by the parties, following the voir dire conducted by the court.

(d) Electronic Record. The clerk's list of trial jurors' names and information must be sealed if filed in the record of the case. If filed in the record of the case, the list of trial jurors' names, juror information, and any voir dire transcript containing jurors' names must be sealed. If a prisoner requests a transcript of voir dire, the court will issue an order describing the terms of the prisoner's access to it.

47.2 Manner of Selection and Order of Examination

(a) Composition of Panel.

- (1) Initial Panel. The initial panel called will consist of the number of jurors ordered by the court plus the number of allowable peremptory challenges. The clerk will assign numbers to the jurors in the order in which they are called.
- (2) Challenges. If any juror in the initial panel is excused for cause, an additional juror will be immediately called and will take the seat and number of the excused juror. After the initial panel is filled and challenges for cause are exhausted, the parties will exercise peremptory challenges.

- (3) Trial Jury. After challenges are exhausted, the clerk will call by name the agreed number of jurors who have the lowest assigned numbers. These jurors constitute the trial jury.

Civil Rule 48. Jurors

 - (C) if granted leave, a second affidavit showing the results.
- (2) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, a juror or prospective juror may decline to communicate with anyone concerning a trial in which the juror was involved.

48.2 Nondisclosure of Jurors' Identities

Appropriate citations should be noted following the text on each page of the charge to the jury.

(b) The court may receive additional requests for instructions to the jury relating to questions or issues arising during the trial at any time prior to the closing arguments. The parties submitting such late proposed instructions must be prepared to explain to the court both the need for the additional instruction and the reason for its omission from the instructions proposed before trial.

(c) Proposed instructions to the jury must be served upon opposing parties when they are filed with the court, in accordance with the scheduling order.

Civil Rule 54. Costs and Fees

The application must be made on Form AO-133, Bill of Costs, available on the court's website and shall be limited to the costs permitted by 28 U.S.C. § 1920. Sufficient documentation showing the amount of costs (including but not limited to, copies of invoices, receipts, orders, vouchers billing statements, etc.) is required. Failure to attach sufficient documentation to support a claimed cost is grounds for disallowance of that particular item.

(b) The opposing party may object within 14 days after the application was filed. Any objection must specify the item and/or amount objected to and give reasons for the objection. A failure to file objections constitutes a waiver of any right to have the clerk's action reviewed by the court.

(c) Order Taxing Costs.

- (1) If no objections are filed, the clerk shall approve the application for taxation of costs by completing the taxation of costs portion of the AO-133 form within 14 days of expiration of the time for filing objections.
- (2) If objections are filed, the court shall make a determination and issue an order as to costs.

(d) Costs may be inserted in the judgment without application.

54.2 Attorney Fees

Attorney fees will only be allowed upon an order of the presiding judge.

Civil Rule 56. Summary Judgment

56.1 Motion for Summary Judgment

- (1) set forth in serial form each fact on which the party relies to support the motion;
- (2) pinpoint cite to a specific pleading, deposition, answer to interrogatory, admission, or affidavit before the court to support each fact;
- (3) be filed separately from the motion and brief; and
- (4) immediately upon filing of the motion, be e-mailed in a word processing format to each party against whom summary judgment is sought. This need not be e-mailed to pro se litigants without access to e-mail.

(b) Any party opposing a motion for summary judgment must file a Statement of Disputed Facts simultaneously with and separately from the response brief. The Statement must:

- (1) set forth verbatim the moving party's Statement (except for pro se prisoners who can simply refer to each Statement by number), adding only:
 - (A) whether each fact in the moving party's Statement is "undisputed" or "disputed"; and,
 - (B) if "disputed," pinpoint cite to a specific pleading, deposition, answer to interrogatory, admission or affidavit before the court to oppose each fact; and
- (2) set forth in serial form:
 - (A) each additional fact on which the party relies to oppose the motion; and

- (B) pinpoint cite a specific pleading, deposition, answer to interrogatory, admission, or affidavit before the court to support each additional fact.

(c) In the alternative, the movant and the party opposing the motion may jointly file a statement of stipulated facts if the parties agree there are no material disputed facts. Such stipulations are entered into only for the purposes of the motion for summary judgment and are not intended to be otherwise binding.

(d) Where the parties do not file a joint stipulation, failure to file a Statement of Undisputed Facts will be deemed an admission that material facts are in dispute. Failure to file a Statement of Disputed Facts will be deemed an admission that no material facts are in dispute.

56.2 Motion Filed Against Self-Represented Prisoner

(a) A defendant must file and serve the following “Notice and Warning to Plaintiff,” in a document separate from the motion and from the brief, at the time the defendant files and serves any motion for summary judgment against a plaintiff who is proceeding pro se and who is incarcerated or detained at any time before filing a response to the motion:

The court requires this Notice and Warning to be given to all pro se prisoner litigants when an opposing party files a motion for summary judgment.

Defendant _____ [name defendant, or state “all defendants”] has/have moved for summary judgment by which [appropriate pronoun] seek[s] to have your remaining claims dismissed and judgment entered against you. A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case [as to the following claims: _____].

Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for summary judgment. Generally, summary judgment must be granted when there is no genuine issue of material fact—that is, if there is no real dispute about any fact that would affect the result of your case, the party who asked for summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, which will end your case. When a party you are suing makes a motion for summary judgment that is properly supported by declarations or other sworn testimony, you cannot simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in the record, including depositions, documents, affidavits or declarations, stipulations, admissions, interrogatory answers, or other materials, as provided in Rule 56(c), or comply with Rule 56(d), to contradict the facts shown in the other party's declarations and documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not submit your own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you. If summary judgment is granted, judgment will be entered against you and there will be no trial.

Additionally, a local rule of the District of Montana, D. Mont. L. R. 56.1(b), requires that “[a]ny party opposing a motion for summary judgment must file a Statement of Disputed Facts setting forth the specific facts, if any, that establish a genuine issue of material fact precluding summary judgment in favor of the moving party.”

(b) Failure to provide the above Notice and Warning will result in denial of the motion for summary judgment, regardless of whether the motion is fully briefed.

Civil Rule 58. Entering Judgment

58.1 Entering Judgment

(a) When Required. Except as to orders disposing of motions listed in Fed. R. Civ. P. 58(a), the clerk will enter judgment by separate document at the conclusion of each case.

- (1) When a jury returns a general verdict without special interrogatories or denies all relief, or when the court awards only costs or a sum certain, the clerk must promptly enter judgment, in favor of one party and against another party, without awaiting direction by the court.
- (2) In the text of any order on which it is appropriate for the clerk to enter judgment, the court will direct the clerk as to the time and manner of entering judgment. If the court finally denies all relief in the case but gives no direction as to entry of judgment, the clerk must enter judgment without awaiting the court's direction.

Except where a hearing is ordered in the court's discretion, a matter is submitted on the briefs without oral hearing.

78.2 Social Security Cases

(a) Special Briefing Schedule. Unless the defendant files a motion to dismiss, the clerk will issue a briefing schedule when the administrative record is filed. The clerk will set specific due dates based on the following schedule:

- (1) The plaintiff's opening brief must be filed within 60 days after filing of the administrative record. Failure to timely file the brief may result in summary dismissal of the case.
- (2) The defendant's response brief must be filed within 30 days after the plaintiff's brief is filed;
- (3) The plaintiff's reply brief, if any, must be filed within 14 days after the defendant's brief is filed and may contain no more than 3250 words.

(b) Briefs. Principal briefs must contain:

- (1) a statement of the issues presented for review;
- (2) a concise statement of the case setting out the facts relevant to the issues submitted for review, describing the relevant procedural history, and identifying the rulings presented for review, with appropriate references to the record;
- (3) the party's contentions and the reasons for them, with citations to the authorities and parts of the record on which the party relies;
- (4) a short conclusion stating the precise relief sought; and

- (5) no more than 6250 words.

78.3 Review of Matter in Bankruptcy

(a) Objections Under 28 U.S.C. § 157.

- (1) Objections to a bankruptcy judge's proposed findings and conclusions or other ruling subject to de novo review under 28 U.S.C. § 157 must be filed within 14 days of the ruling. A response may be filed within 14 days of the objection's filing. Objection and response are limited to 6500 words. A reply is not permitted.
- (2) An objecting party must itemize:
 - (A) each factual finding of the bankruptcy judge to which objection is made, identifying the evidence in the record the party relies on to contradict that finding; and
 - (B) each conclusion of the bankruptcy judge to which objection is made, setting forth the authority the party relies on to contradict that conclusion.

(b) Appeals under 28 U.S.C. § 158. Practice in appeals to the District Court under 28 U.S.C. § 158 is governed by Part VIII of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

Civil Rule 83. Rules Governing Attorneys and Representation

83.1 Attorney Admission and Appearance

(a) General Rules.

- (1) An attorney who appears in this court is subject to its disciplinary jurisdiction as set forth in L.R. 83.2.
- (2) In order to appear on behalf of a party in this court, an attorney must be:
 - (A) admitted to practice before this court and be on active status with the State Bar of Montana;
 - (B) be an attorney currently employed or retained by the United States or by the Federal Defenders of Montana; or
 - (C) have been granted leave to appear pro hac vice in the case in which they are appearing.
- (3) An attorney authorized to appear in this court must promptly notify the court of any change in the attorney's status in another jurisdiction that would make the attorney ineligible for membership or ineligible to appear under subsections (c) or (d) of this rule.

(b) Membership in the Bar.

- (1) Only attorneys of good moral character who are active members of the State Bar of Montana and not subject to any pending administrative, disciplinary, suspension, or disbarment orders in any jurisdiction may be admitted as members of the bar of this court.
- (2) Law clerks currently employed by a judge of this District may be admitted to this court even if they are on inactive status with the State Bar of Montana.
- (3) Applicants must disclose on their application whether they have ever been held in contempt, otherwise disciplined by any court for disobedience to its rules or orders, or sanctioned under Fed. R. Civ. P. 11 or 37(b) or their state equivalent. The Chief Judge may designate a judge to review all applicants who have been subject to any such discipline, obtain additional information regarding such sanctions if necessary, and make a determination as to membership.

- (4) Eligible attorneys must complete the online application process using PACER and pay all required fees including the admission fee and any re-registration fees which may be imposed. Failure to pay these fees may result in denial of admission or deactivation of filing privileges.
- (5) When the clerk receives notice that a member of the Bar is not in good standing, the clerk will notify the attorney that he or she may not appear in any case. On the clerk's receipt of notice from the State Bar of the attorney's return to good standing, the attorney is reinstated to practice in this court.

(c) Attorneys for the United States and Federal Defenders. An attorney currently employed or retained by the United States or by the Federal Defenders of Montana may appear in this court in any matter within the scope of the attorney's employment, provided the attorney:

- (1) is an active member of another federal bar or of the bar of the highest court of a State, territory, or insular possession of the United States;
- (2) is not subject to any pending administrative, disciplinary, suspension, or disbarment orders in any jurisdiction; and
- (3) has completed the E-File registration for federal attorneys on PACER.

(d) Pro Hac Vice Appearance.

- (1) A non-member attorney who does not reside and is not regularly employed in Montana may, upon motion to and in the discretion of the presiding judge, appear and participate in a particular case provided they are:
 - (A) an active member of another federal bar or of the bar of the highest court of a State, territory, or insular possession of the United States;

- (B) not subject to any pending administrative or disciplinary suspension or disbarment order or an order of suspension in any jurisdiction;
 - (C) of good moral character; and
 - (D) have been retained to appear in this court.
- (2) A pro hac vice applicant may not file electronically unless granted leave to appear pro hac vice.
- (3) An applicant attorney must obtain the name, address, telephone number, and written consent of local counsel who is an active member of the bar of this court with a physical office within the geographical boundaries of the District of Montana and with whom the court and opposing counsel may readily communicate regarding the conduct of the case, upon whom documents will be served, and who will be responsible to participate as required under subsection (7) of this rule.
- (4) Local counsel must file a motion for the applicant attorney's admission pro hac vice but need not comply with L.R. 7.1(c)(1). Counsel must attach to the motion the applicant's affidavit or declaration stating, under penalty of perjury:
- (A) the applicant's state or territory of residence and office addresses, including firm name and telephone, fax, and e-mail contact information;
 - (B) that the applicant has paid or will pay, simultaneously with filing the application, the admission fee shown on the court's website, subject to reimbursement if the application is denied;
 - (C) that the applicant either has reviewed the CM/ECF User's Guide for Filing in the District of Montana located on the court's website or is proficient in electronic filing in another federal district court;
 - (D) by what court(s) the applicant has been admitted to practice, the date(s) of admission, and the date(s) of termination of admission, if any;

- (E) that the applicant is in good standing and eligible to practice in these courts;
 - (F) that the applicant is not currently suspended or disbarred in any other court;
 - (G) whether the applicant has ever been held in contempt, otherwise disciplined by any court for disobedience to its rules or orders, or sanctioned under Fed. R. Civ. P. 11 or 37(b) or their state equivalent; the name of the court before which the proceedings were conducted; the date of the proceedings; and what action was taken in connection with those proceedings. A copy of any such contempt, discipline, or sanction order must be included with the application;
 - (H) whether the applicant has concurrently or within the two years preceding the date of application made any pro hac vice application to this court, the title and the cause number of each matter in which an application was made, the date of application, and whether the application was granted;
 - (I) that the applicant understands that pro hac vice admission in this court is personal to the attorney only and is not admission of a law firm and that the attorney will be held fully accountable for the conduct of the litigation in this court; and
 - (J) that the applicant has complied with Montana Rule of Professional Conduct 8.5.
- (5) Leave to appear pro hac vice is granted or denied solely at the discretion of the presiding judge and pertains only to the instant case. Revocation of leave to appear pertains to the instant case only and does not automatically bar application in another case or membership in the bar of the court.
- (6) Pro hac vice counsel must update the information required by L.R. 83.1(d)(4)(A), (D) (as to termination of admission only), (E), (F), and (G) if it is or becomes incorrect or incomplete at any point in the duration of the admission.

- (7) Local counsel must participate actively in all phases of the case, including, but not limited to, attendance at depositions and court proceedings, preparation of briefs and discovery requests and responses, and all other activities to the extent necessary for local counsel to be prepared to go forward with the case at all times. Unless otherwise ordered, local counsel must sign all pleadings, motions, and briefs. The court, in extraordinary circumstances and on motion by local counsel, may suspend or modify local counsel's duties. If the court alters local counsel's duties or waives this rule—neither of which will occur routinely—all documents subsequently filed must be signed by counsel actively involved in the case.

83.2 Standards of Conduct and Discipline

(a) Professional Rules. The standards of professional conduct of attorneys appearing in this court include the American Bar Association's Model Rules of Professional Conduct and the Montana Rules of Professional Conduct. For a willful violation of any professional rules or standards in connection with any pending matter, an attorney is subject to appropriate disciplinary action and to referral of the matter to the appropriate authority for disciplinary proceedings.

(b) Attorney Under Appointment of Court.

- (1) Compensation. It is the duty of an attorney to act without compensation whenever the attorney is appointed by the court to represent an indigent person in any proceeding not covered by the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 3006A, except as otherwise provided by statute or rule.
- (2) Gratuities. Attorneys appointed by the court to represent an indigent person may not, without specific approval of the court, accept or solicit any money for any purpose from any person on account of the representation. Any attorney violating this rule will be disciplined by the court. If it comes to the attention of any attorney appointed to represent an indigent that the person is in fact not indigent or has sources of money for payment of fees or costs, that fact must be presented to the court, regardless of whether the attorney is permitted to accept or solicit money on account of the representation.

(c) Attire. Lawyers must wear appropriate professional attire for all proceedings before the court.

(d) Discipline, Suspension, and Disbarment.

(1) General Provisions.

(A) An attorney who appears in this court is subject to discipline under this rule for:

- (i) disciplinary sanction by a competent authority in any state, federal, territory, commonwealth, or foreign jurisdiction;
- (ii) conviction of any crime of which the elements or underlying facts may impact fitness to practice law;
- (iii) any act or omission, including incompetence or incapacity, that violates the professional rules set forth in paragraph (a) above;
- (iv) violation of any court order; or
- (v) misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact made in any application for admission or readmission to the bar of this court.

(B) This rule does not limit any inherent power of the court, such as contempt power, and does not preclude or condition imposition of sanctions for violation of professional standards or an order, rule, or other law.

(CH) “Disciplinary Judge” means the Chief Judge or another district judge designated by the Chief Judge to exercise authority in matters of attorney discipline, suspension, or disbarment.

(DE) Except as otherwise provided by this rule, or unless the Disciplinary Judge orders otherwise, proceedings under this rule are confidential.

(~~ED~~) Discipline imposed under this rule may consist of one or any combination of the following:

- (i) disbarment or suspension with or without conditions;
- (ii) public censure or private reprimand;
- (iii) probation with or without conditions;
- (iv) restitution, fine, and/or assessment of costs, including reasonable attorney fees; or
- (v) referral to appropriate disciplinary authority.

(~~FE~~) All proceedings under this rule involve the exercise of discretionary judgment in inherently judicial functions. All persons participating on behalf of or at the request of the court in past, present, or future matters are immune from civil liability.

(~~GF~~) Costs of all proceedings under this rule will initially be borne by the court, but payment of costs and reasonable attorney fees may be imposed on a disciplined attorney.

(~~HG~~) All documents submitted pursuant to this rule must be delivered to the clerk of court, not to a judge's chambers, and may be enclosed in an envelope marked "Confidential Attorney Matter."

~~(H) "Disciplinary Judge" means the Chief Judge or another district judge designated by the Chief Judge to exercise authority in matters of attorney discipline, suspension, or disbarment.~~

(I) The term "attorney" does not include a federal judge. Complaints against judges must be filed in compliance with procedures established by the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

(2) Reciprocal Discipline.

- (A) Duty to Notify of Pending Disciplinary Actions. Upon receiving notice from any jurisdiction that a disciplinary authority has found probable cause to believe conduct warranting discipline has occurred, an attorney must promptly notify the clerk of court of the matter and provide copies of documents issued in that action.
- (B) Duty to Notify Clerk of Discipline Imposed in Another Jurisdiction. Upon notice of the imposition of discipline in any jurisdiction, an attorney must promptly notify the clerk of court of the matter and provide copies of documents imposing discipline. Failure to comply with this requirement waives the right to object to imposition of reciprocal discipline in this court.
- (C) Show-Cause Order. Upon receiving notice of imposition of discipline in another jurisdiction, the Disciplinary Judge will issue an order requiring the disciplined attorney to show cause in no less than 21 days why the same discipline should not be imposed in this court. The order will include:
 - (i) a requirement that the attorney either produce a certified copy of the record from the other jurisdiction or show why the record is not required;
 - (ii) a notice that failure to respond will result in imposition of reciprocal discipline without further notice; and,
 - (iii) if the Disciplinary Judge did not receive notice from the attorney under (d)(2)(B), notice that the attorney may be deemed to have waived the right to object.
- (D) Response by Attorney; Findings; Order.
 - (i) Failure to Respond or Comply. If the Disciplinary Judge finds the attorney did not respond to the show-cause order or did not comply with (d)(2), the identical discipline will be imposed and the matter may be continued under subsections (3) or (4).

- (ii) Identical Discipline; Exceptions. After considering the attorney's response, the Disciplinary Judge will impose identical discipline unless:
 - (a) the attorney was deprived of fair notice or a fair opportunity to be heard in the other jurisdiction;
 - (b) the proof establishing the misconduct was so unreliable or lacking as to make a finding of misconduct insupportable;
 - (c) a public censure has already been imposed and the Disciplinary Judge finds it appropriate redress for the attorney's misconduct; or
 - (d) other substantial reasons counsel against acceptance of the other jurisdiction's conclusions.
 - (iii) Other Options. If the Disciplinary Judge declines to impose identical discipline, lesser discipline may be imposed, or the matter may be continued under subsections (3) or (4) or closed without imposition of discipline.
- (E) Return to Good Standing. Where discipline consists of suspension for a specific period of time and the other jurisdiction returns the attorney to good standing at the end of that period, the clerk may return the attorney to good standing in this court.

(3) Attorneys Convicted of Crimes.

- (A) Upon receipt of reliable proof that an attorney has pled guilty or nolo contendere or been found guilty of a crime that may impact the attorney's fitness to practice law, the Disciplinary Judge must immediately suspend the attorney from practice and issue an order to the attorney to show cause why suspension is inappropriate and why a lesser discipline or no discipline is appropriate.

- (B) When the availability of direct and discretionary appeal has been exhausted, a criminal conviction is conclusive evidence in any disciplinary proceeding that the attorney committed the crime.
- (C) Upon receipt of reliable proof that a criminal conviction has been reversed, the Disciplinary Judge must vacate any disciplinary order that is based solely on the fact of conviction.
- (4) Grievance Procedure. The following procedures apply when a judge files a grievance against an attorney.
 - (A) Grievances.
 - (i) The clerk must notify the attorney and provide a copy of the grievance.
 - (ii) The attorney shall not respond unless directed to do so by the Disciplinary Judge.
 - (iii) A Disciplinary Judge who has not filed a grievance against the attorney will review the grievance and may:
 - (a) decide that no action is warranted;
 - (b) refer the matter to another disciplinary authority;
 - (c) order an investigation; or
 - (d) after giving the attorney notice and an opportunity to respond:
 - (1) decide that no action is warranted;
 - (2) impose private reprimand, restitution, fine, and/or assessment of costs; or

- (3) either:
 - (A) impose any discipline to which the attorney consents in writing; or
 - (B) order an investigation.
 - (iv) The clerk will notify the attorney of the Disciplinary Judge's decision.
- (B) Investigation.
 - (i) The Disciplinary Judge may designate one or more members of the bar of this court to investigate a disciplinary matter.
 - (ii) The investigation must proceed expeditiously and must recommend:
 - (a) dismissal of the grievance;
 - (b) intervention short of discipline; or
 - (c) filing of a formal complaint to initiate further proceedings.
 - (iii) Where there is more than one investigator, the report must be made jointly, but each investigator must make his or her own recommendation.
 - (iv) Investigators are authorized to administer oaths and to issue subpoenas.
 - (v) The attorney must be given a reasonable opportunity to submit relevant evidence or statements.
 - (vi) The report must include copies of all witness statements, all relevant documentary evidence, and a summary of findings.

- (C) Review by Disciplinary Judge. After review of the investigative report, the Disciplinary Judge must:
 - (i) dismiss the grievance;
 - (ii) refer the matter to another disciplinary authority and/or, with the attorney's consent, impose measures short of discipline; or
 - (iii) designate one or more members of the bar of this court to prosecute the matter.
- (D) Prosecutor.
 - (i) The Disciplinary Judge may designate the investigator(s) and/or one or more other members of the Bar of this court to prosecute a disciplinary matter.
 - (ii) Prosecutors are authorized to administer oaths and to issue subpoenas and may investigate the matter further before and after filing a complaint.
- (E) Complaint and Hearing.
 - (i) The prosecutor's filing of a complaint will initiate a civil action. The Disciplinary Judge or another Article III judge who has not filed a grievance against the attorney will preside.
 - (ii) The complaint must adequately inform the attorney of the alleged misconduct. It must be served pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4. A complaint may be amended.
 - (iii) The presiding judge must promptly hold a conference to set a schedule for all proceedings.
 - (iv) The Federal Rules of Evidence apply. The presiding judge will determine whether and to what extent the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure apply.

- (v) Evidence must be presented in open court. Neither party has a right to a jury. Misconduct must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. The parties must be permitted to present evidence and argument as to the merits, mitigation, and appropriate discipline, if any.
 - (vi) Within a reasonable time after the close of the evidence, the presiding judge must issue Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and specify the disciplinary action to be taken, if any.
- (F) Decision. Entry of an order imposing discipline is final and appealable to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. If disbarment, suspension, or public censure is imposed, the clerk of court must notify the clerk of the Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and the disciplinary authorities in the jurisdictions in which the attorney is admitted to practice.

(5) Reinstatement.

- (A) Time for Petition.
- (i) Any disbarred attorney may seek reinstatement at the expiration of the term specified in the order imposing disbarment or within ten years of entry of the order, whichever comes first.
 - (ii) Any attorney on suspension or probation may seek reinstatement after the attorney has served one-half the total term imposed.
 - (iii) If the attorney was disbarred, suspended, or placed on probation under subsection (2) of this rule, the attorney may seek reinstatement when the jurisdiction originating discipline recognizes a change in the attorney's status.
- (B) A petition for reinstatement must be filed with the clerk of court. The attorney must demonstrate qualification and fitness to practice law. The petition must be supported by competent evidence and the attorney may request an evidentiary hearing.

- (C) The Disciplinary Judge will hear the petition. Any expenses incurred by the court may be assessed against the attorney regardless of the decision.
- (D) The Disciplinary Judge may order full or conditional reinstatement or deny reinstatement.
- (E) The clerk of court must notify the clerk of the court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and the disciplinary authorities in the jurisdictions in which the attorney is admitted to practice of full or conditional reinstatement.

83.3 Substitution and Withdrawal of Counsel

(a) Substitution of Counsel. When a party changes attorneys, a notice of substitution signed by the incoming and the outgoing attorney must be filed by the incoming attorney. The incoming attorney is responsible for ensuring that he or she is added to the case for the correct party or parties and is properly designated to receive notices of electronic filing. When the incoming attorney makes an appearance, the clerk must terminate electronic service on the outgoing attorney. Substitution of counsel automatically revokes any consent to e-mail service under Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(b)(E)-(F) or Fed. R. Crim. P. 49(b).

(b) Withdrawal of Counsel.

- (1) When an attorney's withdrawal will leave any party without counsel for any period of time, the attorney may withdraw only by leave of court.
- (2) A motion for leave to withdraw must state the client's last known mailing address and must be accompanied by either:
 - (A) the client's written consent to counsel's withdrawal, signed by the attorney and the client and acknowledging the client's obligation immediately to retain new counsel or appear pro se; or
 - (B) an affidavit of counsel showing that:

- (i) a notice of intent to file a motion to withdraw was personally served on the client at least 14 days prior to filing the motion to withdraw;
- (ii) the client has been advised of its obligation immediately to retain new counsel or appear pro se if the motion to withdraw is granted; and
- (iii) facts constituting good cause support withdrawal. A showing of good cause may be made by filing an ex parte affidavit separate from the affidavit addressing subsections (i) and (ii) above. An ex parte affidavit must be served on the client but need not be served on any other party.

83.4 Agreements of Attorneys

(a) When an attorney disputes the existence of an agreement or stipulation, the agreement is unenforceable unless:

- (1) it is in writing and signed by an attorney of record for the party against whom enforcement is sought;
- (2) it is in an electronic communication sent by an attorney of record for the party against whom enforcement is sought; or
- (3) its existence is supported by a clerk's minutes or a court reporter's record.

(b) In open court, an agreement or stipulation made by any attorney of record for a party is enforceable against that party.

83.5 Attorney as Witness

If an attorney representing any party is examined as a witness in a case and gives testimony on the merits, the attorney may not argue the merits of the case, either to the court or jury, except by permission of the court, and as limited by the court.

83.6 Appointment of Counsel

(a) Civil Pro Bono Panel.

- (1) The Civil Pro Bono Panel is the court's resource for identifying attorneys willing to make a pro bono contribution to the District of Montana. Names of panel members are not available to litigants or the public.
- (2) Applications are available on the court's website.
- (3) An attorney may, by letter to the clerk of court, withdraw from the panel at any time.

(b) Request for and Appointment of Counsel.

- (1) Counsel may be appointed on a pro se party's motion or on the court's own motion with the party's consent. In social security disability cases, counsel will not be appointed unless the party acknowledges counsel is entitled to obtain compensation from any award of benefits.
- (2) Generally, counsel will be consulted before appointment.
- (3) With the order of appointment, the clerk will provide counsel courtesy copies of documents filed in the case to date.
- (4) Unless the judge orders otherwise, counsel must represent the party only in the case in which the order is entered and through final judgment or other resolution in the district court. Counsel may but need not represent the party on appeal.

(c) Notice of Appearance. On receiving an order of appointment, counsel must immediately file a notice of appearance to ensure receipt of all future filings in the case.

(d) Withdrawal.

- (1) An appointed attorney may move to withdraw as counsel pursuant to Montana Rule of Professional Conduct 1.16(a) or on counsel's certification that:

- (A) counsel has a conflict of interest;
 - (B) counsel and client substantially disagree about litigation tactics or the application of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11;
 - (C) serious personal incompatibility makes effective representation impractical; or
 - (D) a compelling reason justifies withdrawal.
- (2) Leave to withdraw is in the judge's discretion.

(e) Expenses.

- (1) By application to the clerk, counsel may seek reimbursement for reasonable expenses, including costs of associate counsel, on an interim basis and/or at the conclusion of the case. Reimbursement is subject to availability of non-appropriated funds. Reimbursements over $3,000.00 are subject to the approval of the Non-Appropriated Funds Advisory Committee.
- (2) Counsel must seek costs from adverse parties if entitled to do so and, if successful, must repay any reimbursement previously obtained from the court.

(f) Fees. An appointed attorney may seek fees from an adverse party as provided by law.

(g) Screening. Cases in which a party is proceeding without counsel and which have survived screening pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1915(e)(2)(g) and 28 U.S.C. 1915A shall be referred to the court's Pro Bono Panel to determine if a panel attorney is interested in entering an appearance in the matter.

83.7 Student Participation

(a) Purpose. This rule is adopted to support clinical instruction and mentoring in litigation practice. It authorizes participation by law students in this court on a case-by-case basis.

(b) Participation.

- (1) Authorization. After the required certifications are filed in the record of a case, a student may participate in preparing written submissions to the court in that case and make presentations for the client in open court. The student may not sign documents and may not be registered in the CM/ECF system.
- (2) Presiding Judge. At any time, the presiding judge may limit, condition, or disallow a student's participation.
- (3) Withdrawal or Termination of Required Certification. Any person required to provide certification or consent may withdraw it at any time by written notice to the clerk of court. All required certifications will terminate upon announcement of the results of the first bar exam taken by the student.

(c) Student Eligibility. To participate under this rule, a student must:

- (1) (A) be enrolled at an ABA-accredited law school and complete at least two-thirds of the credits required to graduate; or
(B) be a recent graduate who has not yet taken a bar exam or who is awaiting the results;
- (2) be familiar with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, of Criminal Procedure, and of Evidence, the Model Rules of Professional Conduct, the Montana Rules of Professional Conduct, and the Local Rules;
- (3) provide personal certification using Form K in the Appendix; and
- (4) obtain certification from the dean of the student's law school, using Form L, and from a supervising attorney, using Form M.

(d) Supervising Attorney. A supervising attorney must:

- (1) explain to the client the terms of the student's participation in each case and obtain the client's written consent to the student's participation, using Form J;

- (A) Where the client is the United States, the consent of the United States Attorney for the District of Montana is required;
 - (B) Where the client is the State of Montana, the consent of the Attorney General is required;
- (2) file Form M in the record of the case, attaching Forms J, K, and L;
- (3) assist and counsel the student and accept full personal and professional responsibility for all work performed by the student;
- (4) ensure that at least one supervising attorney:
 - (A) is present in person throughout the student's presentations in open court;
 - (B) signs all written submissions in which the student participates and briefly notes the student's participation; and
- (5) at the student's first presentation in open court, introduce the student to the presiding judge.

83.8 Self-Represented Litigants

(a) Personal Appearance. Any individual acting without an attorney must appear personally and may not delegate that duty to any other person who is not a member of the bar of this court. A self-represented person is bound by the federal rules and all applicable local rules. Sanctions, including but not limited to entry of default judgment or dismissal with prejudice, may be imposed for failure to comply with local rules.

(b) Entities. Any entity other than an individual, including but not limited to a corporation, an unincorporated association, a partnership, or a union, may appear only by an attorney.

(c) Self-Represented Litigant. Self-represented litigants may file electronically through PACER by registering for an account as a non-attorney filer. All filings by self-represented litigants must be done through PACER, by mail, or by in person delivery to the clerk's office.

(d) Consent to Electronic Service Only. Except in attorney discipline and social security matters, a self-represented litigant may consent to have all future documents filed in their case sent to them via e-mail. The agreement must be in writing and signed by the litigant. The clerk may add terms and conditions other than those in this rule and make revoke the agreement at any time.

(e) Agreement with Parties. Instead of or in addition to an agreement under subsection (d), a self-represented litigant and one or more other parties may agree to receive and/or effect service by means other than CM/ECF, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 5(b)(2)(E) or (F). Any such agreement must be in writing, signed by each party to it, and filed in the record of the case.

83.9 Limited Scope Representation

An attorney may provide limited representation to an unrepresented party in a civil action by order granting a motion which defines the scope of limited representation with reasonable particularity and certifies the approval of the unrepresented party. Any change in the scope of limited representation must be approved by the court. Termination of the representation must also be approved by the court.

Criminal Rule 11. Pleas

CR 11.1 Sealed Plea Agreements

No plea agreement may be filed under seal unless a party moves for leave to seal under L.R. CR 49.3.

Criminal Rule 16. Discovery

CR 16.1 Production by the Government

(a) Unless the parties otherwise agree and where not prohibited by law, the government shall disclose to the defense all information “favorable to an accused” that is “material either to guilt or to punishment” under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83, 87 (1963), and that is known to the government. This requirement applies regardless of whether the information would itself constitute admissible evidence. The information shall be produced in a reasonably usable form unless that is impracticable; in such a circumstance, it shall be made available to the defense for inspection and copying. Beginning at the defendant’s arraignment and continuing throughout the criminal proceeding, the government shall make good-faith efforts to disclose such information to the defense as soon as reasonably possible after its existence is known, so as to enable the defense to make effective use of the disclosed information in the preparation of its case.

(b) The information to be disclosed under (a) is favorable to the defendant because it:

- (1) is inconsistent with or tends to negate the defendant’s guilt as to any element, including identification, of the offense(s) with which the defendant is charged;
- (2) casts doubt on the admissibility of evidence that the government anticipates offering in its case-in-chief;
- (3) casts doubt on the credibility or accuracy of any evidence, including witness testimony, the government anticipates offering in its case-in-chief;
- (4) may be relied upon to support an argument for a lesser punishment at sentencing.
- (5) tends to mitigate the charged offense(s) or reduce the potential penalty;
- (6) tends to establish an articulated and legally cognizable defense theory or recognized affirmative defense to the offense(s) with which the defendant is charged; or

- (7) may be used for impeachment purposes. Such information includes but is not limited to:
 - (i) information regarding whether any promise, reward, or inducement has been given by the government to any witness it anticipates calling in its case-in-chief; and
 - (ii) information that identifies all pending criminal cases against, and all criminal convictions of, any such witness.

(c) As impeachment information described in (b)(7) and witness-credibility information described in (b)(3) may be dependent on which witnesses the government intends to call at trial, this rule does not require the government to disclose such information until 7 days before trial unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(d) In the event the government believes that a disclosure under this rule would compromise witness safety, victim rights, national security, a sensitive law-enforcement technique, or any other substantial government interest, it may motion the court for a modification of the requirements of this rule, which may include in camera review and/or withholding or subjecting to a protective order all or part of the information.

(e) For purposes of this rule, the government includes federal, state, and local law-enforcement officers and other government officials who have participated in the investigation and prosecution of the offense(s) with which the defendant is charged. The government has an obligation to seek from these sources all information subject to disclosure under this rule.

(f) Unless the presiding judge orders earlier disclosure, the government must disclose all information identified in (b)(1)-(2), (4)-(6) in its possession in a timely manner. On the defendant's request the government must provide all discovery required by:

- (1) Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A)-(E) and (G) no later than 14 days after arraignment and
- (2) Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(F) as soon as reasonably possible and no later than seven days before trial.

(g) If the government fails to comply with this rule, the court, in addition to ordering production of the information, may:

- (1) specify the terms and conditions of such production;
- (2) grant a continuance;
- (3) impose evidentiary sanctions; or
- (4) enter any other order that is just under the circumstances.

(h) The government's obligation to disclose exculpatory information extends to information covered under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(2). Exculpatory information need not be admissible so long as it is reasonably likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

(i) Questions as to whether information in the possession of the prosecution is exculpatory should be resolved in favor of the defendant. The government may voluntarily submit information to the court for in camera inspection to determine whether it constitutes exculpatory information that must be produced. Upon submitting such information, the government shall file in the record a written notice of submission describing in general terms that information being submitted for inspection.

CR 16.2 Production by the Defendant

Upon request by the government, and unless otherwise ordered by the court, the defendant shall provide all discovery required by Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(b) within 21 days from the date of the request.

CR 16.3 Expert Witnesses

In addition to those requirements outlined under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(G) or 16(b)(1)(C), an expert witness disclosure must include the following information:

- (a) identification of all documents or other information reviewed by the expert;

(b) a summary of the results of any studies, examinations, or tests performed by the expert regarding the subject matter of the testimony; and

(c) a statement as to whether the expert will also testify as a lay witness.

Unless the presiding judge sets a specific disclosure deadline, the parties must disclose all the above information no later than 21 days before trial.

CR 16.4 Sensitive Material

(a) When disclosing information that is of a sensitive nature because it contains personal information, personal identifiers, or financial information, a party may make the disclosure subject to protections contained in this rule by including with the disclosure a written notice explicitly referencing this rule and setting forth the reasons why such protections are warranted. Upon disclosure the party must include the designation “SENSITIVE MATERIAL - SUBJECT TO L.R. CR 16.4.”

(b) Upon written notice and designation of sensitive material in accordance with this rule, the following restrictions shall apply to the designated material:

(1) Access to documents shall be limited to:

(A) attorneys representing the defendant or the government;

(B) the CJA Supervising Attorney;

(C) expert witnesses whose review of the material is necessary for the presentation of the party’s case;

(D) such law clerks, investigative agents, paralegals, and secretaries employed by defendant or the government, whose review of the material is required for the preparation and presentation of the party’s case; and

(E) the defendant. Documents shall not be left in the defendant’s possession without defense counsel present.

- (2) Documents shall be used in connection with a matter pending before this court and for no other purpose. Attorneys shall expressly advise every authorized person who reviews the documents as to this limitation on lawful use.
- (3) It shall be the responsibility of the attorneys of record in this action to employ, consistent with this rule, reasonable measures to control duplication of, access to, and distribution of the documents.

(c) Failure of any party to comply with the terms of this rule will be subject to punishment to the full extent of the Local Rules, the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and the court's inherent authority.

CR 16.5 Continuing Duty to Disclose

Any party that discovers additional information subject to disclosure under this rule after the deadline for such disclosure shall promptly disclose the information to the other party or the court.

+14 days	Response Brief 6500 words maximum
+ 7 days	Reply 3250 words maximum

NONOM COUNTY,

DEFENDANT THOMAS'S
STATEMENT OF DISPUTED FACTS

Verbatim Response to Plaintiff's Statement of Undisputed Facts:

1. Plaintiff Edward Reynolds is employed by Nonom County, Montana, in its Housing and Community Development Department. Reynolds Dep. at 3:2.

Undisputed.

2. Reynolds performed the functions associated with his formal job description of Community Development Specialist, and he took on additional supervisory responsibilities, at his superiors' request, "for a number of years with his duties continually expanding each year." Reynolds Dep. at 53:17-59:6; Stewart Dep. at 8:12-10:14.

Disputed as to Reynolds' taking on additional supervisory responsibilities "at his superiors' request." At times he took on unnecessary tasks on his own initiative, Johnson Dep. at 48:16-25, Johnson-Smith Dep. at 13:10-23, and there is no evidence his duties continually expanded each year. Otherwise undisputed.

3. On April 6, 2007, and again on September 21, 2007, Reynolds' supervisors, Camilla Johnson-Moore and Joseph A. Johnson, Jr., respectively, asked Defendant Thomas to reclassify Reynolds' job or increase his pay to reflect the duties he was performing. Johnson Dep. at 5:3-7:8; Johnson-Moore Dep. at 6:2-24; Reynolds Dep. at 48:10-16, 54:18-56:22; County Personnel Policy 200.210.478.

Disputed. Thomas Dep. at 23:21-25; Simpson Dep. at 9:24-10:18.

4. Thomas failed to respond to their requests.

Undisputed, as they did not make any requests.

Defendant's Additional Facts in Opposition to Plaintiff's Motion:

5. In light of a growing number of oral requests for job reclassification, Thomas instructed all supervisors to put requests for job reclassification in writing. Thomas Dep. at 23:16-19; Staff Meeting Minutes, Jan. 31, 2007.

ESTATE OF MARY JONES,

Plaintiff,

vs.

WESTBEST NURSING HOME;
DR. DANIEL ORK; PATRICIA
PATTERN,

Defendants.

CV 13-792-TD-XYZ

FINAL PRETRIAL ORDER

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 16 and L.R. 16.4, the parties submit this Final Pretrial Order to govern the course of trial in this matter.

I. Nature of Action.

This is a negligence claim against Westbest Nursing Home that arises out of the injury and death of Mary Jones. Plaintiff claims the nursing home was negligent in physically restraining and then over-medicating Mary Jones. Mary Jones was injured when she became entangled in restraints caused by a medically induced disorientation. She later died.

Defendant denies it was negligent and claims it conformed to the applicable standard of care for nursing homes. Furthermore, Defendant asserts that the cause of death was not related to either the restraints used or to the medications administered. Defendant also claims that Mary Jones was comparatively at fault because she ignored specific instructions about attempting to leave her bed, instructions given when she was in full possession of her faculties.

II. Jurisdiction and Venue.

Mary Jones is a citizen of the State of Montana. Westbest Nursing Home is a corporation organized under the laws of Oregon having its principal place of business in Oregon. Subject matter jurisdiction is based upon diversity of citizenship, 28 U.S.C. § 1332. Personal jurisdiction is not questioned. Venue is proper in the Missoula Division as the incident occurred in Polson, Montana. L.R. 1.2(c)(5), 3.2(b).

III. Jury.

The case is set for trial before a jury of 9 persons. Neither party contests trial of any issue by the jury.

IV. Agreed Facts.

The following facts are agreed upon and require no proof:

- (a) Mary Jones was born on July 4, 1934.
- (b) Mary Jones was a patient at Westbest Nursing Home in Polson, Montana from April 15, 2010, until May 23, 2013.
- (c) Mary Jones died at 1:30 p.m. on May 23, 2013.
- (d) The cause of Mary Jones's death was asphyxiation.
- (e) Mary Jones is survived by her daughter Anna Jones Murphy and her son Thomas Jones.
- (f) The reasonable funeral expenses incurred are $7,640.00.

V. Elements of Liability.

A plaintiff's prima facie case in an action against a nursing home for injury or death of a patient due to misuse of a chemical or physical restraint consists of the following elements:

- (a) A duty owed by the nursing home to the patient. Plaintiff contends that under the provisions of the Nursing Home Patients' Bill of Rights Westbest had a duty to keep Jones free from chemical and physical restraints unless authorized by a physician.
- (b) Breach. The breach of that duty by the nursing home, either by omitting to perform or by performing wrongly, its duty to the patient. Plaintiff contends Jones was restrained for the convenience of the Westbest staff without authorization by her treating physician.

- (c) Injury to or death of the nursing home patient. Jones died of asphyxiation from the restraints placed on her by Westbest staff.
- (d) Causation. Westbest Nursing Home's breach of duty caused the Jones's injury or death.

VI. Defense Elements.

The following are elements of defenses asserted by Defendant:

- (a) The nursing home conformed to the applicable standard of care.
- (b) There is no causal relationship between the alleged negligent conduct and Mary Jones's injury or death.
- (c) Mary Jones was comparatively at fault for her own injuries because she was negligent in failing to follow instructions. The sub-elements of this defense are:
 - (1) Mary Jones had a duty to follow medical advice;
 - (2) Mary Jones breached that duty by failing to follow specific instructions given to her by nurses and doctors;
 - (3) Mary Jones's injuries were caused by her own actions.

VII. Relief Sought.

Plaintiff claims special and general damages for wrongful death and survivorship, including the following:

- (a) Funeral expenses in the amount of $7,640.00.

- (b) Medical expenses after injury and before death $5,200.00.
- (c) Mental and physical pain and suffering $150,000.00.
- (d) Wrongful death $150,000.00.
- (e) Survivorship $75,000.00.

VIII. Legal Issues.

The issue of causation will be disputed at the time of jury instruction. See Busta v. Columbus Hosp. Corp., 916 P.2d 122 (Mont. 1996); Hunsaker v. Bozeman Deaconess Found., 588 P.2d 493 (Mont. 1978).

IX. Dismissals.

The parties have stipulated to dismiss with prejudice Defendants Dr. Daniel Ork and Nurse Patricia Pattern.

X. Discovery Documents.

Plaintiff will offer the following discovery documents:

- (a) Defendant's Answers to Interrogatories: Nos. 1, 13, 20(a), 20(b)
- (b) Defendant's Responses to Requests for Admission: Nos. 3, 9, 15
- (c) Defendant's Responses to Requests for Production: No. 7 (with attached documents)

Defendant will offer the following discovery documents:

- (a) Plaintiff's Answers to Interrogatories: Nos. 17, 23
- (b) Plaintiff's Responses to Requests for Admission: Nos. 10, 11

XI. Estimate of Trial Time.

The parties estimate that Plaintiff will require two and a half days of trial to complete her case in chief. Defendant estimates it will require one day to complete its case in chief. Plaintiff will call 16 lay witnesses and 2 expert witnesses. Defendant will call 7 lay witnesses and 2 expert witnesses.

XII. Supersession.

This Order supersedes the pleadings in this matter.
