CIVIL PRO BONO PANEL

Pursuant to Local Rule 83.6, the United States District Court for the District of Montana maintains a Civil Pro Bono Panel of volunteer attorneys. The Civil Pro Bono Panel is the court's resource for identifying those members of the bar of this Court who are willing to make a pro bono contribution to the District of Montana.

The purpose of this panel is to identify attorneys willing to represent pro se litigants in the prosecution and/or defense of civil actions before the Court. Attorneys are appointed pursuant to Local Rule 83.6 which also details the expense reimbursement procedures for appointed attorneys.

The Court frequently has a need for attorneys to contribute their time by representing pro se plaintiffs in lawsuits challenging conditions of confinement or alleging unconstitutional treatment under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The Court typically would only assign cases where a pro se plaintiff has survived screening pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915, survived summary judgment, or where the legal importance or difficulty of the issues is evident. In addition to providing an opportunity for public service, these cases are especially appropriate for young lawyers who might otherwise not have the experience of trying a civil case to a jury in federal court.

Reasonable costs expended may be reimbursable pursuant to Local Rule 83.6. In addition, if the plaintiff obtains a favorable judgment, the attorney may seek attorneys' fees from the defendants.

The Court actively seeks qualified attorneys to join the panel, and we ask you to consider volunteering your services to this important effort. Please complete the application form included in this packet and submit it along with your application for admission.

STANDARDS OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

The standards of professional conduct of attorneys appearing in this court include the American Bar Association's Model Rules of Professional Conduct and the Montana Rules of Professional Conduct. For a willful violation of any professional rules or standards in connection with any pending matter, an attorney is subject to appropriate disciplinary action and to referral of the matter to the appropriate authority for disciplinary proceedings.

Attorney discipline, suspension, and disbarment are addressed in Appendix B to the Local Rules. Please ensure that you are familiar with your obligations under this Appendix. In particular, please note that every attorney admitted to practice before the Court must notify the Clerk of Court upon receiving notice from any jurisdiction that a disciplinary authority has found probable cause to believe conduct warranting discipline has occurred and upon notice of the imposition of discipline in any other jurisdiction.
