RULE 100
 EFFECTIVE DATE-DECORUM

100-1 EFFECTIVE DATE

These Revised Rules of Procedure of the United States District Court for the District of Montana supplement the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Title 28 U.S.C. and the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Title 18 U.S.C., and will be effective January 1, 1983. Subsequent amendments to these Rules shall be effective on the date of filing.

100-2 DECORUM

(a) Opening Court: When the Court first convenes in the morning and after the noon recess, the Court Crier shall, in an appropriate manner, announce the opening of Court, and all persons in attendance in the courtroom shall rise until the Judge has taken the bench.

(Amended June 8, 1989)

105-2 ASSIGNMENT OF CASES

(a) Jurisdiction: All of the judges of the District of Montana, including the senior judges designated to serve in Montana by the chief judge of the circuit, shall have jurisdiction over all criminal and civil cases filed in the District of Montana, and may make and sign any orders, decrees or judgments.

(b) Assignment of Division Workload: For the purpose of allocating the work of the judges, however, the chief judge of the District shall by order, assign each of the divisions of the Court to one of the judges in regular active service in the District. All applications for orders in cases pending in any division shall be made to the judge to whom the division is assigned unless by order of the chief judge, a particular cause is specifically assigned to a Judge other than the one regularly assigned, in which case application for orders shall be to the Judge so specifically assigned.

(c) Assignment of Cases to Magistrate Judges: The judge to whom the work of a particular division is assigned may direct that any civil case filed within that division be assigned to any magistrate judge of the District of Montana in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636, and Rule 400-1 of the RULES OF PROCEDURE OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF MONTANA.

(d) Consent to Proceed Before a Magistrate Judge: The right to have all civil proceedings conducted by a United States District Judge appointed pursuant to Article III of the United States Constitution shall be preserved to the parties inviolate.

Any party to a civil action that has been assigned to a magistrate judge pursuant to subsection (c) of the present rule may demand that all pretrial matters excepted from the jurisdiction of the magistrate judge by 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A) be heard and determined, and all trial proceedings conducted and judgment entered, by an Article III judge, by serving upon the other parties a demand therefor in writing at anytime after the commencement of the action and not later than ten (10) days after the service of the last pleading directed to such issue. Such demand may be endorsed upon a pleading of the party. The failure of a party to serve a demand as required by this rule and to file it as required by Fed.R.Civ.P. 5(d) constitutes a waiver by the party to have any pretrial matter heard and determined, or trial proceedings conducted and judgment entered, by an Article III judge, and a consent by the party to have the magistrate judge hear and determine any pretrial matter and to conduct any or all trial proceedings and order the entry of judgment in the case.

105-3 VENUE

(a) Civil Cases: All civil cases are assignable to that Division of the District wherein they properly belong by conformity as near as may be possible to the laws of the State of Montana governing the place of trial, and the trial of all such cases shall be at the place where Court is held within the Division to which the cause is so assigned, unless by agreement of the parties and with the consent of the Court, or by order of the Court in its discretion, or for good cause shown, such trial is ordered elsewhere.

The designation by counsel of a Division in the complaint constitutes a certification by counsel filing the complaint that the Division so designated is the proper venue of the case under the foregoing provisions of this Rule. If no designation of a Division is made by counsel, the Clerk shall assign the cause to the proper Division under the provisions of this Rule.

At the time of appearance, any defendant, if he/she believes that the cause is improperly assigned, may in addition to any other motions made, move that the cause be assigned to the proper Division of the Court. Within 10 days after the first appearance of any defendant, any plaintiff may serve and file a motion for proper assignment. Failure by any party to make such motion for proper assignment within the time provided shall constitute consent to the assignment made, but the Court may of its own motion reassign the case at any time prior to trial.

(b) Criminal Cases: Venue in criminal cases is in accordance with the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

(c) Appeal from Judgment of a Magistrate: Appeal to the District Court from a judgment of conviction by a United States Magistrate under U.S.C. §3402, shall be taken to that Division of the District Court wherein the offense was committed.

105-4 TERMS OF COURT AND CALENDAR

(a) When Set, By Whom: Terms of Court shall be set for the trial of civil and criminal cases in each Division of the Court by the Judge to whom the Division is assigned, at such times, as in the discretion of the Judge, the matters pending in the Division are sufficient to warrant such a term.

(b) Grand Jury, When and Where Impaneled: A Grand Jury for the entire District shall be impaneled by the Court on the Tuesday following the second Monday in January of each year, or as soon thereafter as the business of the Court requires or permits. The Grand Jury shall be in attendance at such times and places as the Court may from time to time order until the second Monday in January of the following year, at which time it shall be discharged unless sooner discharged by the Court. Should the need arise for any reason, additional Grand Juries may be impaneled by the Court.

The Grand Jury matters, praecipes, subpoenas and returns will not be disclosed nor the records thereof be subject to inspection without an order of Court.

Any Judge in the District, including Senior Judges designated by the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, shall have full power to act in all matters pertaining to the Grand Jury.

(c) Law and Motion Calendar, How Set: The Law and motion calendar shall be set as provided in Rule 220-4.

RULE 110
ATTORNEYS-ADMISSION TO PRACTICE-STANDARDS OF CONDUCT-STUDENT PRACTICE

110-1 ADMISSION TO THE BAR OF THIS COURT

(a) Eligibility: Any person who is a licensed attorney and who has been admitted to practice (and is currently in good standing) in the Supreme Court of the United States, any Federal Court of Appeals, the highest appellate court of a sister State, the highest court of an Organized Territory of the United States (as set forth in Title 48 United States Code), or the Supreme Court of the State of Montana, is eligible for admission to the Bar of this Court.

(b) Procedure on Admission: Persons applying for admission must personally appear in Court at the time the motion is made, and no application will be heard unless there has been previously filed with the Clerk of the Court a certificate signed by two members of the Bar of this Court to the effect that the applicant has been admitted to practice in one of the above-mentioned Courts, and that he/she is a person of good moral character and fair professional standing. Before any certificate of admission shall be issued, the applicant must sign the roll of attorneys and take and subscribe to the following oath or affirmation:

"I solemnly swear or affirm that I will support the Constitution of the United States; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the Government of the United States; that I will maintain the respect due to the Courts of Justice and Judicial Officers, and that I will conduct myself properly as an attorney and counselor of this Court."

110-2 PRACTICE IN THIS COURT

(a) Who May Practice: Except for a party representing himself/herself, and except as provided in Rule 110-2(c), (d), no person may practice before this Court unless he/she has been admitted to the Bar of this Court pursuant to Rule 110-1.

(b) Appearance: No attorney, unless his/her name appears on the pleadings in the case, may participate in any proceedings in said case until his/her name has been entered of record as one of counsel.

(c) Permission to Appear in a Particular Case: Should a party in any cause not appear in person, and should his/her attorney not be a resident of this State, even though admitted to practice in this Court, he/she must at the time of his/her first appearance, or within 10 days thereafter and before any further proceedings are had in the matter, join with him/her of record an attorney who is a member of the Bar of this Court and who resides in this District.

In order to help secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action, such local counsel must be furnished with all factual, evidentiary, and legal information necessary for him/her to intelligently act on behalf of the party he/she represents; and he/she must also be vested with full and complete authority to act on behalf of and bind the party he/she represents in all matters connected with the litigation.

A failure of local counsel to take any action required by the Rules of Civil Procedure or these Rules by reason of lack of authority shall, for the purpose of imposing sanctions, be treated as a refusal to act.

(d) Government Attorneys: Attorneys admitted to practice in any United States District Court may practice before this Court in any proceeding in which they are representing the United States or any of its officers or agencies.

110-3 STANDARDS OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

(a) Professional Conduct and Ethics: The standards of professional conduct of attorneys practicing in this Court shall include the American Bar Association's Canons of Professional Ethics. For a willful violation of any of these Canons in connection with any matter pending before this Court an attorney may be subjected to appropriate disciplinary action by the Court.

110-4 WITHDRAWAL FROM CASE

(a) Leave of Court and Notice: No attorney may withdraw from any case, civil or criminal, except by leave of Court after notice served his/her client and opposing counsel.

(b) Responsibility of Attorney on Withdrawal: When an attorney of record for any reason ceases to act for a party, such party should immediately appoint another attorney or appear in person, and may be required to do so on motion and notice to such party. Until this is done, the authority and the responsibility of the attorney shall continue for all proper purposes.

110-5 SUSPENSION AND DISBARMENT

(a) Disbarment and Discipline: For good cause and after an opportunity to be heard, any member of the Bar of this Court may be disbarred, suspended for a definite time, reprimanded, or disciplined as the Court may deem proper, except that where it is shown that any member of the Bar of this Court has been disbarred from practice in any State, District, Commonwealth or Possession, or any Court of the United States, he/she will be forthwith suspended from practice before this Court. He/she will thereupon be afforded the opportunity to show good cause, within 40 days, why he/she should not be disbarred.

(b) Reinstatement: Any attorney who has been disbarred by this Court may petition for reinstatement.

(c) Advisory Committee: The Court may appoint a Committee of the Bar to assist it in matters involving the professional conduct of attorneys arising in or connected with any matter pending before the Court, whether such conduct occurred before or after the Court acquired jurisdiction of the cause. The Committee shall, upon order of the Court, conduct such investigations as the Court may direct and report the results of their investigation to the Court and their recommendations. The report and recommendations shall be advisory only.

110-6 ATTORNEY AS A WITNESS

If an attorney or counsel of any party is examined as a witness in a case, and gives testimony on the merits, he shall not argue the merits of the case, either to the Court or Jury, except by permission of the Court, and as limited by the Court, in that case.

110-7 AGREEMENTS OF ATTORNEYS

No executory agreement or stipulation by an attorney, not made in open court, the existence of which is not conceded, will be enforced, unless the same was in writing and signed by the attorney of record; and no executory agreement by an attorney in open court, the existence of which is not conceded, will be enforced unless the same be either made as above provided, or appear from the minutes of the Clerk, or from the minutes of the notes of the Reporter, or be within the clear recollection of the Judge. Agreements during a trial or hearing in open court may be made by the counsel conducting the trial, though he/she be only one of the attorneys of record.

110-8 ATTORNEY UNDER APPOINTMENT OF COURT

(a) Compensation: It shall be the duty of counsel to act as such without compensation whenever he/she is appointed by the Court to represent an indigent person in any proceeding not covered by the provision of the Criminal Justice Act of 1964 as amended.

(b) Gratuities: Attorneys appointed by the Court to represent an indigent person shall not, without specific approval of the Court, accept from or solicit any money for any purpose from any person on account of the representation of the indigent. Any attorney violating this Rule will be disciplined by the Court. If it comes to the attention of any attorney appointed to represent an indigent that the person is in fact not an indigent or has sources of money for payment of fees or costs, that fact shall be presented to the Court.

110-9 COMMUNICATIONS TO COURT AND EX PARTE APPLICATIONS

The Court will not receive letters or other communications from counsel that do not indicate on their face that copies have been sent to opposing counsel.

Ex parte applications for orders, made either by mail or by telephone, will not be granted unless it is indicated that the adverse party has been advised of the request.

110-10 STUDENT PRACTICE RULE

(a) Purpose: The Bench and the Bar are responsible for providing competent legal services. This Rule is adopted to assist practicing attorneys in providing legal services and to encourage law schools to provide clinical instruction in trial work of varying kinds.

(b) Activities:

(1) An eligible law student may appear in this Court or before a United States Magistrate for the District of Montana on behalf of any person in any civil or criminal proceedings if:

(i) the person on whose behalf he/she is appearing has indicated in writing his/her consent to that appearance and the supervising attorney has also indicated in writing approval of that appearance;

(ii) the supervising attorney is personally present throughout the proceedings and is fully responsible for the manner in which they are conducted.

(2) In each case the written consent and approval referred to above shall be filed in the record of the case and shall be brought to the attention of the Judge of the Court or the presiding Magistrate.

(3) Under the general supervision of a member of the Bar of this Court, but outside the personal presence of that attorney, an eligible law student may engage in other activities, including:

(i) preparation of briefs, pleadings, and other documents to be filed in Court, but such documents must be approved and signed by the supervising attorney;

(ii) advising, negotiating, and performing other appropriate legal services, but only after prior consultation with, and obtaining the consent of, the supervising attorney. Negotiations are subject to final approval of the supervising attorney.

(c) Requirements and Limitations: In order to make an appearance pursuant to this Rule the law student must:

(1) be duly enrolled in a law school approved by the American Bar Association;

(2) have completed legal studies amounting to at least two-thirds of the total credit hours required for graduation;

(3) be certified by the Dean of his/her law school as being of good character and competent legal ability and as being adequately trained to perform as a legal intern;

(4) be introduced to the Court by a member of the Bar of this Court;

(5) neither ask for nor receive any compensation or remuneration of any kind for his/her services from the person on whose behalf he/she renders services; but this shall not prevent an attorney, legal aid bureau, law school or public defender agency from paying compensation to the eligible law student, nor shall it prevent any agency from making such charges for its services as it may otherwise properly require;

(6) certify in writing that he/she has read and is familiar with and will abide by the Code of Professional Responsibility.

(d) Certification: The Certification of a student by the Law School Dean:

(1) shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court, and, unless it is sooner withdrawn, it shall remain in effect until the expiration of 12 months after it is filed, or admission to the bar, whichever occurs first. Upon exceptional circumstances shown, the Dean may renew the certification for one more 12-month period. Law school graduates who must take the bar examination are eligible until the results of the first bar examination after their certification under this Rule are announced;

(2) may be withdrawn by the Dean at any time by mailing a notice to that effect to the Clerk of the Court, who shall forthwith mail copies thereof to the student and the supervising attorney;

(3) may be terminated by the Court at anytime without notice or hearing and without any showing of cause.

(e) Supervision: The attorney under whose supervision an eligible law student participates in any of the activities permitted by this Rule shall:

(1) be a member in good standing of the Bar of this Court;

(2) assume personal professional responsibility for the student's guidance in any work undertaken and for supervising the quality of the student's work;

(3) assist and counsel the law student in the activities mentioned in these Rules and review such activities with such student, all to the extent required for the proper practical training of the student and the protection of the client;

(4) have supervision over no more than one law student at any one time; however, in the case of recognized legal aid, legal assistance, public defender, and similar programs furnishing legal assistance to indigents, the supervising attorney may supervise two law students at one time.

If an applicant is a party in interest, whether as a debtor, creditor, receiver, trustee or representative of any of them, or is an attorney for such party, he/she shall state under oath in his/her petition that he/she has not entered into any agreement, written or oral, express or implied, with any other party in interest, or any attorney for such party for the purpose of fixing any compensation to be paid from the assets of the estate.

225-4 DEPOSIT OF FUNDS BY RECEIVER

The report shall contain a summary of the operations of the receiver, an inventory of the assets and their appraised value, a schedule of all receipts and disbursements, and a list of all creditors, with their addresses and the amount of their claims. The petition for instructions shall contain the receiver's recommendations for a continuance or discontinuance of

225-6 NOTICE TO BE GIVEN OF HEARINGS

The receiver shall give all interested parties at least 10 days notice by mail of the time and place of hearings for:

The Commissioner shall certify and mail the deposition to the foreign Court in accordance with the provisions of Rule 30(f) or 31(b) Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and file proof of mailing with the Clerk of this Court.

RULE 235 PRETRIAL PROCEEDINGS-CIVIL

235-1 PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

(a) Not later than forty-five (45) days after a case is at issue, or one hundred twenty (120) days after filing of the complaint, whichever comes first, the judge or magistrate judge to whom the case is assigned shall hold a preliminary pretrial conference to discuss the matters included in the preliminary pretrial statements and discuss and schedule the following matters:

- (1) joinder of additional parties;
- (2) amendment of pleadings;
- (3) filing and hearing motions;
- (4) identification of expert witnesses;
- (5) completion of discovery;
- (6) filing of proposed final pretrial order;
- (7) final pretrial order conference;
- (8) a trial date, if applicable;
- (9) any other dates necessary for appropriate case management.

All parties receiving notice of the conference shall attend in person or by counsel, prepared to discuss the implementation of a pretrial scheduling order conducive to the efficient and expeditious determination of the case.

(b) Every party shall serve a Pre-Discovery Disclosure Statement required by Local Rule 200-5(a) not later than fifteen (15) days prior to the date set for the preliminary pretrial conference.

(c) Every party shall file a Preliminary Pretrial Statement no later than seven (7) days prior to the date set for the conference. The statement shall include a brief factual outline of the case. The statement shall also address:

- (1) issues concerning jurisdiction;
- (2) identifying, defining and clarifying issues of fact and law genuinely in dispute;
- (3) making stipulations of fact and law and otherwise narrowing the scope of the action to eliminate superfluous issues;
- (4) deadlines relating to joinder of other parties and amendments to pleadings;
- (5) the pendency or disposition of related litigation;
- (6) propriety of special procedures including reference to a master or a magistrate judge;
- (7) controlling issues of law which the party anticipates presenting for pretrial disposition;
- (8) anticipated course of discovery, and time frame for completion, including procedure for management of expert witnesses;
- (9) propriety of modifying standard pretrial procedure established by Local Rule 235;
- (10) advisability of the case being considered for placement upon the court's expedited trial docket in accordance with Rules 235-4(a); and
- (11) prospect for compromise of case and feasibility of initiating settlement negotiations or invoking alternate dispute resolution procedures.

(d) The following cases shall be excepted from the requirements of the present rule:

- (1) Appeals from proceedings of an administrative body of the United States of America.
- (2) Petitions for a Writ of Habeas Corpus.
- (3) Proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code, Title 11, United States Code.
- (4) Actions prosecuted by the United States of America to collect upon a debt.
- (5) Forfeiture actions prosecuted by the United States of America.
- (6) Any case which the judge or magistrate judge to whom the case is assigned orders to be excepted from the requirements of the present rule.

In those cases excepted from the requirements of the present rule, the assigned judicial officer shall, not later than forty-five (45) days from the date the case is at issue, or one hundred twenty (120) days after filing of the initial pleading, establish a schedule for final disposition of the case.

235-2 PRETRIAL SCHEDULING ORDER

After the Preliminary Pretrial Conference, the presiding judge or magistrate judge shall immediately enter an order summarizing the matters discussed and action taken, setting a schedule limiting the time for those matters referred to in Rule 235-1(a) and covering such other matters as are necessary to effectuate the agreements made at the conference.

The scheduling order shall specifically designate whether the case has been placed upon the court's expedited trial docket pursuant to Rule 235-4(a).

235-3 STATUS CONFERENCES

Status conferences may be held in any case as deemed necessary by the judge or magistrate judge to whom the case is assigned. A party may move the assigned judicial officer to convene a status conference by filing an appropriate motion advising the judicial officer of the necessity for a conference.

235-4 TRIAL SETTING

(a) Expedited Trial Docket

(1) The court shall establish an expedited trial docket. A case placed on the expedited trial docket shall be set on the court's trial calendar for a date not later than six (6) months from the date of the preliminary pretrial conference.

(2) A party may, at the time of the preliminary pretrial conference, request placement of the case upon the expedited trial docket. With the consensus of the parties, the assigned judicial officer may place the case upon the expedited trial docket, establishing a date certain for trial in the pretrial scheduling order. By consenting to placement upon the expedited trial docket, the parties agree the trial shall not be continued absent a showing that a continuance is necessary to prevent manifest injustice.

(b) General Trial Docket: Unless a trial date has been established by previous order, the judge or magistrate judge to whom the case is assigned shall, within thirty (30) days of the submission of a proposed final pretrial order, convene a status conference for the purpose of determining the readiness of the case for trial and establishing a trial date.

Pursuant to the status conference the judicial officer to whom the case is assigned shall immediately enter a final scheduling order which establishes dates for the following:

- (1) a final pretrial conference unless deemed unnecessary by the judicial officer;
- (2) filing of each party's proposed charge to the jury, or, where appropriate, proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law; and
- (3) trial; the date established shall not be more than sixty (60) calendar days for the date of the status conference, unless the assigned judicial officer's trial docket precludes accomplishment of trial within that time frame, in which event the case shall be given priority on the next trial calendar. In the event the trial date established is beyond eighteen (18) months from the date the complaint was filed, the judge or magistrate judge to whom the case is assigned shall enter an order certifying that (i) the demands of the case and its complexity render a trial date within the eighteen-month period incompatible with serving the ends of justice; or (ii) the trial cannot be reasonably held within the eighteen-month period because of the status of the judicial officer's trial docket.

235-5 SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE

The judge or magistrate judge to whom a civil case is assigned may, upon written request of any party filed in the record, or upon the judicial officer's own initiative, order the parties to participate in a settlement conference to be convened by the court. Each party, or a representative of each party with authority to participate in settlement negotiations and effect a complete compromise of the case, shall be required to attend the settlement conference. The judicial officer may, in his or her discretion, preside over the settlement conference.

235-6 FINAL PRETRIAL ORDER

(a) Procedure: Counsel for the parties shall prepare and sign a proposed consolidated final pretrial order to be lodged with the Clerk of Court by the date established in the pretrial scheduling order. It shall be the responsibility of counsel for the plaintiff(s) to convene a conference of all counsel at a suitable time and place. The purpose of the conference is to arrive at stipulations and agreements conducive to simplification of the triable issues and to otherwise jointly prepare a proposed final pretrial order. If counsel for any party is unreasonably refusing to cooperate in the preparation of the pretrial order, the opposing party shall move the court to enter an appropriate order.

(b) Form and Content:

- (1) Nature of Action. A plain, concise statement of the nature of the action.
- (2) Jurisdiction. The statutory basis of jurisdiction and factual basis supporting jurisdiction.
- (3) Jury; Nonjury. Whether a party has demanded a jury of all or any of the issues and whether any other party contests trial of any issue by jury.

- (7) Points of Law. A concise statement of each disputed point of law with respect to liability and relief, with reference to pertinent statutory and decisional law. Extended legal argument shall not be included.
- (8) Amendments; Dismissals. A statement of requested or proposed amendments to the pleadings, or dismissals of parties, claims or defenses.
- (9) Witnesses. Each party shall identify by name and address all prospective witnesses, and specifically designate those who are expected to be called as an expert witness.
- (10) Exhibits; Schedule, and Summaries. An exhibit list furnished by the Clerk of Court shall be completed by each party and appended to the proposed pretrial order. The list shall include all documents or other items that the party expects to offer as - an exhibit at trial, except for impeachment or rebuttal.

- (11) Discovery Documents. A list of all answers to interrogatories and responses to requests for admissions that a party expects to offer at trial.
 - (12) Bifurcation, Separate Trial or Issues. A statement whether bifurcation or separate trial of specific issues is feasible and advisable.
 - (13) Estimate of trial time. An estimate of the number of court days counsel for each party expects to be necessary for the presentation of their respective cases in chief.

235-7 FINAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

The final pretrial conference shall be convened by the assigned judicial officer at the time designated, and shall be attended by the attorneys who will be trying the case.

Unless otherwise ordered, counsel for the parties shall, not less than seven (7) days prior to the day on which the final pretrial conference is scheduled, accomplish the following:

(a) Exchange of Exhibits: Exchange copies of all items expected to be offered as exhibits, and all schedules, summaries, diagrams, charts, etc., to be used at trial, other than for impeachment or rebuttal.

The copies of the proposed exhibits shall be premarked for identification, with the plaintiff's proposed exhibits being identified by numbers 1 to 500 and the defendant's by numbers 501 to 1000. Upon request, a party shall make the original or the underlying documents of any proposed exhibit available for inspection.

(b) Deposition Testimony: Serve and file statements designating excerpts from depositions (specified by witness, page and line reference) proposed to be offered at trial other than for impeachment and rebuttal.

The opposing party shall, at the time of the final pretrial conference, serve and file a statement which sets forth both (1) any objection to the excerpts of each deposition identified; and (2) any additions to the excerpts of each deposition (specified by witness, page and line reference) that he/she proposes to offer.

235-8 REPRESENTATION AT PRETRIAL CONFERENCES

At least one of the attorneys for each party participating in any conference before trial shall have authority to enter into stipulations and to make admissions regarding all matters that the participants may reasonably anticipate may be discussed.

RULE 240 SETTLEMENT OF ORDERS-JUDGMENTS-FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

240-1 JUDGMENTS PREPARED BY CLERK

Unless the Court otherwise directs, and subject to the provision of Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, judgment upon the verdict of a jury (except those verdicts mentioned in Rule 240-2) shall be promptly prepared, signed and entered by the Clerk. When the Court directs that a party recover only money or costs, or that all relief be denied, the Clerk shall prepare, sign, and enter judgment upon receipt of the direction. No other judgment shall be entered in the cases provided for in this Rule.

240-2 JUDGMENTS ENTERED ONLY ON DIRECTION OF COURT

Upon a special verdict or on a general verdict accompanied by interrogatories returned by a jury pursuant to Rule 49 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and in all cases tried by the Court without a jury, except when the Court directs that a party recover only money or costs or that all relief be denied, the Court will give direction as to the entry of judgment, and no judgment shall be entered by the Clerk until such directions are given. In the cases provided for by this Rule, the prevailing party shall within 10 days, unless additional time is granted by the Court, prepare and submit to the Clerk of the Court a draft of the judgment and serve a copy upon each other party. Each other party shall then have 10 days within which to serve and file objections to the form of the proposed judgment. When the time for objections has expired, the Clerk shall deliver the proposed judgment, together with all objections to the Judge.

240-3 PROPOSED FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS, WHEN SUBMITTED AND SERVED

In all cases tried to the Court without a jury, or with a jury which is advisory only, each party shall, if ordered by the Court, submit within the time permitted for the filing of briefs, proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, and serve a copy on each other party.

240-4 FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS, PREPARATION AFTER DECISION

RULE 245 TRIAL

245-1 SETTING OF CASES FOR TRIAL

At each term in the respective Division of the Court, the Judge to whom each Division is assigned will set for trial all causes then at issue. Causes coming to issue during the term may be set in the discretion of the Court upon the application of all parties.

245-2 NOTIFICATION OF PARTIES

Whenever any cause is set for trial, the Clerk of the Court shall promptly notify all parties through their attorneys of record, or if representation is pro se, directly to that party.

245-3 TRIAL MEMORANDA

In any civil case in which a Final Pretrial Conference has not been held, or in any case in which it is ordered by the Court, the Clerk shall at the time of notification of the setting for trial, likewise order the parties to file with the Clerk and serve upon opposing counsel at least 5 days before the day on which such case is set for trial, a trial memorandum.

245-4 IMPANELING A TRIAL JURY

(a) Number of Jurors: A jury for the trial of civil cases shall consist of six persons plus such alternate jurors as may be impaneled. Alternate jurors may be impaneled in civil cases in the discretion of the Court in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(b) Examination of Jurors: Examination of jurors in civil cases shall be in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court the examination of trial jurors will be conducted by the Court. At least 1 day before the date set for trial counsel shall submit to the Court any questions that counsel wishes the Court to ask the jurors.

(c) Manner of Selection and Order of Examination of Jurors: Jurors shall be selected in civil cases in the manner provided for the selection of jurors in criminal cases (Rule 326-2), except that the initial panel shall consist of six persons plus a number of persons equal to the total number of peremptory challenges plus the number of alternate jurors and when the jury is sworn it shall consist of six jurors plus the alternates.

245-5 REQUESTS FOR INSTRUCTIONS TO JURY

Requests for instructions to the jury shall be presented to the Court, and served upon each adverse party, at the opening of the trial before the taking of evidence, but the Court may receive additional requests relating to questions arising during the trial at any time prior to the closing argument. Each requested instruction shall be numbered and written on a separate page, together with a citation of authorities supporting the proposition of law stated in the instruction. Each party shall provide one original and two copies of each instruction.

245-6 NUMBER OF EXPERT WITNESSES

In any trial, before the commencement of testimony, the Court or Master may indicate the number of expert witnesses who will be allowed each side, and no greater number shall be examined unless leave is first obtained.

245-7 CONTINUANCES

In granting an application for continuance, the Court may impose costs and conditions.

A motion to postpone or continue a trial on the grounds of absence of a witness or evidence shall be made upon affidavit showing the nature and materiality of the expected testimony or evidence, and that diligent effort was timely made to secure the witness or the evidence, and that reasonable grounds exist for the production of the witness or evidence if postponement or continuance is granted. If the testimony or the evidence would be admissible during the trial, and the adverse party stipulates that it shall be considered as actually given during the trial, there shall be no postponement or continuance unless, in the opinion of the Court, a trial without the witness or evidence would work an injustice on the moving party.

245-8 JURY COST ASSESSMENT

Whenever any civil actions scheduled for jury trial is settled or otherwise disposed of in advance of the actual trial, then except for good cause shown, all jury costs, Marshal's fees, mileage, and per diem, shall be assessed equally against the parties and their counsel, or otherwise assessed as directed by the Court unless the Clerk is notified before twelve noon of the last business day preceding the time when the action is scheduled for trial, in time to advise the jurors that it will not be necessary for them to attend. Likewise, when any civil action, proceeding as a jury trial, is settled at trial in advance of the verdict, then, except for good cause shown, all jury costs, Marshal's fees, mileage, and per diem shall be assessed equally against the parties and their counsel, or otherwise assessed as directed by the Court.

RULE 265 COSTS

265-1 TAXATION OF COSTS

(a) Application to the Clerk: Within 10 days after the entry of a judgment allowing costs, the prevailing party shall serve on the attorney for the adverse party and file with the Clerk an application for the taxation of costs. The application shall be on a Bill of Costs form prescribed by the Court which shall be furnished by the Clerk. If an application for costs is received that is not on the appropriate form, the Clerk shall promptly notify the party seeking costs, forward the form, and extend the time for filing the amended claim for not to exceed 10 days. The application shall contain an itemized schedule of the costs in a statement signed by the attorney for the applicant that the schedule is correct and the costs were necessarily incurred. The application shall be heard by the Clerk not less than 5 nor more than 10 days after it is served, and notice of the time of hearing shall be endorsed upon it.

Upon failure to comply with this Rule, all costs, other than the Clerk's costs, which may be inserted in the judgment without application, shall be waived. At the option of the Clerk the hearing may be held by telephone conference call.

(b) Depositions: In taxing costs of depositions, the Clerk shall allow the fees of the Court Reporter at the rates specified by the Judicial Conference of the Ninth Circuit, or the actual fees paid by the prevailing party, whichever is less, for the originals of any depositions which were taken in the case at the instance of the prevailing party. The party seeking costs shall furnish evidence that the deposition was reasonably necessary to the development of the case when taken, and does not contain unreasonably prolonged or irrelevant examination.

In any case in which the Judge has entered a special protective order, the Clerk, using the rate specified in the preceding paragraph, shall tax costs for the original of any deposition taken by the prevailing party by reason of entry of such protective order.

The Clerk may refuse to tax the costs of transcribing a deposition that is unreasonably prolonged or irrelevant. In the absence of an objection from the adverse party, the Clerk may presume that any deposition for which costs are claimed was reasonably necessary for the development of the case, and considered in its entirety does not contain unreasonably prolonged or irrelevant examination.

(c) Transcripts: In taxing costs of transcripts the Clerk shall allow fees of the Court Reporter at the rate specified by the Judicial Conference of the Ninth Circuit, or the actual fees paid by the prevailing party for the original or any portion of the transcript furnished to the Court unless it appears that the transcript was not necessarily obtained for use in the case. In the absence of an objection from the adverse party, the Clerk may presume that any portion of the transcript for which costs are claimed was reasonably necessary for the development of the case.

(d) Fees and Disbursement for Witnesses: A party entitled to recover costs shall be entitled to recover the statutory fees and allowances for necessary witnesses as provided in 28 U.S.C. § 1821. Such statutory fees and allowances will be taxable costs for each day that a witness actually testifies at trial. The party seeking costs may show by affidavit, the burden being upon him/her to do so, that the presence of witnesses, who did not actually testify, or were present at trial for a longer time than the days of actual testimony, was necessary.

In the case of expert witnesses the party seeking costs will be entitled to recover only the statutory fees and mileage for such witnesses unless the Judge orders otherwise prior to the time costs are sought.

Mileage will be allowed for all witnesses in accordance with the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1821.

(e) Fees for Exemplification, and Copies of Papers Necessarily Obtained for Use in the Case: Reasonable fees for exemplification and copies of exhibit evidence such as charts, drawings, maps, photographs, movies, and models, etc., which were reasonably necessary to the presentation of the prevailing party's case will be allowed as costs. In taxing costs the Clerk will presume that exhibit evidence that was actually used at trial was reasonably necessary to the presentation of the case, and that exhibit evidence not so used was not reasonably necessary to the presentation of the case.

(f) Bond Premiums: The party entitled to recover shall ordinarily be allowed premiums paid on undertakings, bonds or security stipulations, where the same have been furnished by reason of express requirement of the law, or an order of the Court, where the same are reasonably required to enable the party to secure some right accorded him/her in the action or proceedings. In taxing costs the Clerk will presume that the premiums for all bonds which are on file and of record in the case are allowable as costs.

(g) Other Costs: Items of costs not specifically mentioned in this Rule shall be taxed by the Clerk in accordance with the laws of the United States.

(h) Objections: Upon the hearing, specific objections supported by affidavits or other written evidence, may be made to any item of costs. The Clerk shall thereupon tax the costs, and if there is no appeal, shall insert the amount of costs taxed in the blank left in the judgment, and also in the docket.

(i) Review: A dissatisfied party may appeal upon written motion served within 5 days of the Clerk's decision, as provided in Rule 54(d), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The motion shall specify all objections to the Clerk's decision and the reasons for the objections. Appeals shall be heard upon the same papers and evidence submitted to the Clerk.
